“COAT OF ARMS”

The Coat of Arms was adopted by the Mahaffeys of Ireland in the 11th century, consisting of a shield, on which is a mailed arm raised in defense of the home, with a broken spear held in the hand and over it the inscription, “Factus Non Victus,” meaning, “broken but not conquered.” All pieces of silverware, also furniture, as far back as 800 years has this engraved on it and is to be found among the old family relics in Dublin and other cities in Ireland.

PREFACE

THIS work is promulgated by its authors not in any sense as a literary gem, but rather as a forced product in response to the decision of the majority. It lacks finish, and in a great many respects certain details which would have made it a more valuable work. However, it is hoped that the object has been gained for which it was printed, namely, the preservation of data collected for years, and fulfilling the desire of the older members of the Clan who wished to see a book of the genealogies of those who have met year after year at the Reunions.

This work is not confined to a single family, but to any who have, or descended from the name, who furnished data. The families will be taken up in the counties of Pennsylvania, where the first one of the name was known to locate. Necessarily the sketches must be brief, but it has been the aim to select those details which would help in establishing lines of either past or future generations, and for that reason this book is entitled to a place in every library of those who bear, or descend from the Mahaffey name. Mention will also be made of those living in Ireland, who have for years taken an interest in members of the Clan here, and who have furnished us with interesting information concerning the early history of the family there.

Space has been given to all who have furnished the necessary data in the way of biography, or history, of the present, as well as the past generations, but in most cases your historians have found it difficult to procure the needed data, possibly due to reticence, or modesty. We have aimed to avoid partiality in this regard, naturally were obliged to give only what we were able to procure.

ESTELLE KINPORTS DAVIS.

“OUR HISTORY”

---

Fellow descendents, at last we have found
Our His'try, and in a book it is bound ;
It dates from the time this good Irish name
Scotland forsook, and in Ireland took claim.
Scotch-Irish we are, none better I'm sure,
With others 'tis crossed, remaining as pure
In the veins of the Clan, flowing to-day—
This His'try is proof—you cannot gainsay.
In crossing the span of years we have tried
To connect all the links, trusting you'll bide—
Tradition as facts, since much has been found,
Authentic indeed in our His'try bound.
Lib'ral we have been with our fellow man,
Including all names in this Irish Clan ;
Not only the Ma's and the Me's you'll find,
But names that are common to all mankind.
In writing this book dear Clan we have found,
Much interest displayed in making our round—
You can judge for yourself, reading is proof,
Some silence preferred, others remaining aloof.
Not daunted by this, in silence the work—
Even though some few their duties did shirk,
Was fin'ly completed—we did our best
With data secured may it stand the test
Of critics, which in our Clan you may find—
In censuring we trust they all keep in mind
The efforts of those who this His'try wrote—
They hope not for glory, this you will note—
Simply to prove to generations to come,
From whence they came, and to whom they belong ;
We trust our struggle has not been in vain,
And to all the world our “History” proclaim

MARY E. MAHAFFEY CARST.

HISTORY OF REUNIONS

For ten years the Mahaffey's of Clearfield and Lycoming counties, Pennsylvania, have been holding family Reunions. This Reunion idea was first conceived in the brain of Mrs. Addie Hennigh, of Punxsutawney, Pa., daughter of David Mahaffey, of Louisiana, and grand-daughter of Thomas Mahaffey, of New Washington, Pa., and was formulated by her to W. T. Mahaffey and wife, of Cherry Tree, Pa., who were visiting in her home, June 10, 1905, and was to the effect that an organization be formed, called the "Mahaffey Clan," and that they should hold reunions beginning that fall. Mr. Mahaffey, in his usual enthusiastic manner, agreed to this, and they at once formed a temporary organization, electing Mr. Mahaffey President, and Mrs. Hennigh Corresponding Secretary, she agreeing to send out invitations to all known Mahaffeys to assemble at Mahaffey, Clearfield Co., Pa., to perfect the organization. In response to these invitations seventy-five relatives gathered at Mahaffey on the 12th day of September, 1905, and the first "REUNION" of the "Mahaffey Clan" in Pennsylvania, was held. The following officers were elected to serve one year: W. T. Mahaffey, Cherry Tree, Pa., President; James Mahaffey, Clearfield, Pa., Vice President; W. P. Mahaffey, Clearfield, Pa., Secretary and Treasurer. The second reunion was held at Mahaffey, Pa., August 9th, 1906, with one hundred and seventy-five present. The same officers were re-elected, with the addition of Porter Kinports, of Cherry Tree, Pa., as Historian.

The reunions continued at Mahaffey, Pa., with the same officers re-elected, increasing numbers and growing enthusiasm until six had been held—these had always partaken of the nature of all-day picnics and were heartily enjoyed.

The success of the gatherings being largely due to the untiring efforts of Aunt Kate Mahaffey and her immediate family. At this sixth meeting, August, 1910, Asher C. Mahaffey, of Williamsport, Pa., was elected Vice President, the other officers being retained as before. Several committees were appointed.

Committee on Arrangements—Mrs. A. C. Mahaffey, Williamsport, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Moses Mahaffey, Hepburnville, Pa.; Mrs. W. T. Mahaffey, Cherry Tree, Pa.

Committee on Invitation—Harry B. Mahaffey, Harry Conner, Mrs. Maggie McMurry, Moses Mahaffey and Miss Rachael Mahaffey, of Dublin, Ireland.

Committee on History—Mr. and Mrs. Porter Kinports, of Cherry Tree, Pa.; Mrs. W. T. Mahaffey, Williamsport, Pa.; Samuel Mahaffey, Marion, Ohio; Dr. John Pentland Mahaffey, Dublin, Ireland.

Committee on Finance—R. F. Mahaffey, Frank Flinn and J. R. McMurry.

A vote was taken on place of meeting for the next year and carried in favor of Williamsport, Lycoming Co., Pa. (the cradle of most of these branches of Mahaffey's). President W. T. Mahaffey gave a talk on his travels in Europe the year previous, and related the incidents of his visit to relatives of the Clan in Ireland, where he had the pleasure of seeing many old relics, which included some antique furniture which had been in the possession of the Mahaffey family for several hundred years. He read a letter from Dr. John Pentland Mahaffey, of Trinity College, Dublin, which was received with much enthusiasm.

At the seventh reunion, August 31st, 1911, and the first one held at Williamsport, Pa.; Ezra Rathmell was elected Vice President, other officers remaining the same. The business meeting was held at the "Arlington Hotel." Several new features were introduced at this meeting. 1. The reading of an authentic History embracing the then known data. 2. The presentation to each member present of a facsimile of the "Coat of Arms," adopted by the Mahaffey's in the 11th century. 3. The delightful entertainment at the Acasia Club, by John Hall.

The eighth reunion was again held in Williamsport, August, 1912, this time at the New Crawford Hotel. In the election of officers the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer were retained; Mrs. Geo. N. Davis, of Coffman, W. Va., was elected Historian, in the place of her father, Porter Kinports, who died the March previous. Mrs. O. Watson Bennett, of Williamsport, Pa., Corresponding Secretary. Souvenir badges, with a print of the old Mahaffey Homestead, were presented to those present. At this meeting Mrs. O. Watson Bennett loaned a grandfather's clock, a chair, a curious sun-dial and a book of prayers, the property of Thomas Mahaffey, Sr., for the inspection of his descendants. The assembly was again entertained at the Acasia Club, by John Hall.

The ninth annual reunion of the Mahaffey Clan was held in the Y. W. C. A. Assembly Hall at Williamsport, Pa., August 14th, 1913. The same officers were re-elected with two additional ones, Mrs. Kate Long, Howardsville, Assistant Secretary, and Mrs. M. E. Mahaffey Carst, of Harrisburg, Pa., Assistant Historian. The walls of the hall were handsomely draped in American flags. The flag of Ireland and the Mahaffey "Coat of Arms," occupying prominent places immediately above the President's chair.

The poem, "To the Clan," and the song, "Our Native Land," sung to the tune of "America," composed by Mrs. M. E. Mahaffey Carst, were easily the features of the day.

At this meeting a motion was made and seconded that a book should be printed by the next reunion, which should include all the accumulated data of interest to the Clan, and such genealogies and histories of different families represented as could be gathered. The Historian opposed this motion, protesting that the work involved too much research to furnish complete authentic genealogies to be accomplished in a year. She was over-ruled and the motion carried.

The success of this meeting, and largely those before held in Williamsport, was due to the indefatigable efforts of Mrs. O. Watson Bennett. Responding to an invitation, which had now become a delightful custom, the Clan repaired to the "Acasia Club" for an evening's festivity, Mr. John Hall appearing again as host. At the conclusion of the business meeting the vote carried to hold the tenth annual gathering of the "Mahaffey Clan" at Williamsport, Pa., August 13th, 1914.

TO THE CLAN

Mahaffey Descendants, good old Irish clan!
Be they youthful or aged, woman or man—
My greetings to all at this annual event,
I trust we shall feel the time is well spent.
It has been many years since the first of our clan
Left his emerald home to cross the great span,
As green as the country he had left far behind,
He landed, no doubt hoping fortune to find.

Though centuries have passed since they crossed to this side,
The clan of to-day we behold with much pride,
Filling places of honor, trust and esteem,
Which inspires our heart with love's stately mien.
The ancient "Blue Stocking" is swept from our view,
But the blood in our veins keeps flowing as blue;
No longer 'tis sect,—but one family to-day,
Our greetings exchange and our kinship display.

The descendants surround us with many odd names,
But to our "Irish Clan" they also lay claims;
The love for the shamrock sunk deep in each heart,
Cause our faces to glow and our pulses to start.
Perhaps as we gather to-day we shall miss
Some familiar form, a hand clasp or kiss,
Who have left us to join that reunion above,
Awaiting our coming, our friendship, our love.

Our clan as a rule are both happy and gay,
Age proving no barrier to sunshine or play;
Last year I am told they all marched to the tune
Of enchanting music, morn coming too soon.
I trust as we gather round the gay festal board,
We ever are mindful of our Saviour and Lord;
Even so, we can fill this bright day with much love,
To assemble once more at that banquet above.

This poor rambling verse comes from one of the clan,
Though 'tis not from sweet maid, nor from stalwart man;
The fruit of my mind I have given to you,
A failure, no doubt I have proved, 'tis true.

In conclusion dear friends my toast "To the Clan,"
Is always be cheerful, do good where you can,
Thus prove to the world that the good Irish blood
In Mahaffey descendants is flowing with love.

Composed by Mrs. Mary E. Mahaffey Carst, 608 N. Seventeenth Street, Harrisburg, Pa., complimentary to the Ninth Annual Reunion of Mahaffey Descendants, held at Williamsport, Pa., August 14, 1913.

OUR NATIVE LAND

(Sung to the tune of "America.")

Our native land so dear,
That thrills our heart with cheer
Of thee we sing;
Land where our fathers died,
Land of the shamrocks pride,
To-day upon this side
Our voices ring.

Our native land to thee,
Our praises always be
Loyal and true;
We love this emerald land,
Our clan united stand,
A happy Irish band
We'll prove to you.

Our native land so fair,
Let all that breathe thy air,
With rapture sing;
E'en though you cannot hear,
Our voices blend with cheer,
To-day our hearts are near,
Sweet memories cling.

We love to laud this land,
And proudly clasp the hand
Of Erin's soil;
Long may our praises ring
Though time its changes bring,
To-day our clan doth sing
And rest from toil.

Composed by Mrs. Mary E. Mahaffey Carst, No. 608 North 17th Street, Harrisburg, Pa., June 26th, 1913.

INTRODUCTION TO GENEALOGIES

---

“Wire! Brier! Limberlock!
Four and twenty geese in a flock—
One flew east, one flew west,
And one flew over the cuckoo’s nest.”
—Origin Unknown.

At different times various branches of the Mahaffey family have emigrated from the north of Ireland and located on this side of the Atlantic. In Maryland at an early date and in Pennsylvania as early as 1753. From these branches have sprung a progeny that numbers many thousands, and probably every state in the Union, as well as Canada, boasts representatives.

The Mahaffeys are of Scotch-Irish descent, and the early settlers of that name in Pennsylvania intermarried with such families as the Lindseys, Allisons and Hamiltons, also Scotch-Irish and born in northern Ireland, and all mentioned families originally from Scotland.

The line of direct descent of those who settled in this country in the eighteenth century has not been established in Ireland, owing to the fact that those in the Island of the name are barren of information, as are those here concerning the generations who lived early in the eighteenth, and late in the seventeenth centuries, have been unable to furnish exact data along that line. Neither has the exact connection between the different branches of the family in this country been established, as apparently no records were kept by the first generation locating here.

After a great deal of research the conclusion has been reached that all those families, both in Ireland and America, who sprang from stock in Northern Ireland, and of protestant faith, are of one blood; and could the lines be traced far enough, would merge into one common ancestor.

The early Mahaffeys were Episcopalians or Presbyterians, but intermarriage with other denominations has resulted in a diversity of faiths. Those who are church members are usually active, devoted workers; those who are not affiliated with any denomination can usually be relied upon to help with any good cause, many doubtless carrying on benevolent work unknown to the world.

Various forms of the name are used—McHaffie, Mehaffie, Mehaffy, Mahaffy, Mahaffee and Mahaffey. Immediate members of the same family have used as many as two or three of these, so that little reliance can be placed on the spelling of the names as a means of tracing the lines. Mahaffey is a popular form of the name in America, and numerous families have adopted that spelling, although records show the name to have been spelled differently at an early date.

The family in this country for years embraced agricultural pursuits, and were busy with the task of wresting homes and sustenance from wilderness and the soil.

Tales of Indian warfare have been handed down from generation to generation, but those now living have very vague ideas as to the conditions then existing, and the hardships and trials those early pioneers endured.

The family are not noted especially for brilliant achievement, but has been represented in all the walks of life. Some have held positions of trust and honor; most of them have been good citizens; honesty and sobriety have as a rule marked their course.

GENEALOGY OF LYCOMING AND CLEARFIELD COUNTIES

1. Thomas Mahaffey, the progenitor of the Lycoming and Clearfield county Mahaffey's was born in northern Ireland, probably Donegal county, in 1734. He emigrated to this country prior to 1771, and probably located in East Pennsborough township, Cumberland Co., Pa., as here his first child was born. His wife's name was Elizabeth Lindsey, who was born in 1741, and as that name is closely associated with the early history of that section, she is doubtless of the same stock. His people were Scotch-Irish, as were also hers, and they were of Presbyterian faith.

In 1773 he located on the west side of the Lycoming creek, Lycoming Co., Penna., near what is now Bridge Number Two, and built a log cabin at that place. At this time the name of Joseph Mahaffey is closely associated with Thomas, as land warrants were taken out by them at the same time, and their places either adjoined or were one and the same—a sun-dial found on the premises bearing the name of Joseph Mahaffey, and the date 1803 goes to prove that they were closely associated in some way, but all trace of Joseph has been lost. The name of the place first patented to Thomas Mahaffey was "Pleasant Grove."

In 1778 an uprising of the Indians caused him to carry his family and live stock to a nearby "Block House." The horses broke loose and went back home. To recover them he crept cautiously back through the woods and on the edge of the clearing paused in sight of the house. An Indian appeared in the doorway and smoke was seen emerging from the roof; soon the whole was a mass of flames. It is told that he recovered the horses, but he and other settlers were obliged to abandon the land for a time.

In 1780 he returned and built a more pretentious house on the Lycoming Creek State Road. This was the first house built between Williamsport and Trout Run. In 1784 a new grant of land gave him the opportunity of increasing his holdings until by patent and purchase he owned about six hundred acres. Some of this land and the house remained in the possession of his immediate descendants until 1897, when it was sold and the old house was torn down in 1890.

It has always been understood in the family that Thomas Mahaffey fought in the Revolutionary War. A history of Lycoming county states that he was a soldier in the Revolution and noted for his strength and courage.

Thomas Mahaffey died January 13th, 1813, and his wife in the year 1819. They are buried in the cemetery at Newberry. Simple marble slabs mark their last resting place. Thomas and Elizabeth Lindsay Mahaffey had six children, as follows:

- 2 <sup>1</sup>John Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Feb. 25, 1771, m. Lydia Bailey.
- 3 <sup>2</sup>Elizabeth Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. 1773, m. first Hall, second Tallman.
- 4 <sup>3</sup>William Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. 1779, m. Nancy Bennett.
- 5 <sup>4</sup>Moses Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Aug. 8, 1781, m. Mary Reynolds.
- 6 <sup>5</sup>James Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> d. a bachelor in Burnside, Clearfield Co., and was buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, near New Washington, Pa.
- 7 <sup>6</sup>Mary Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> m. Cummings.

This family, so far as we know, are the only Mahaffeyes who settled near the headwaters of the Susquehanna river, and therefore must be those relatives of whom John Mahaffey, of Drumore, Parrish of Lifford, County Donegal, Ireland, and his nephew, James Mahaffey, born about 1770, of Masshill, Parrish of Lifford, county Donegal, Ireland, talked when James Mahaffey of Pittsburg, Penna., now deceased, the grand nephew of one, and the son of the other, overheard them speak of "some relatives who emigrated to America, and settled somewhere near headwaters of the Susquehanna." This same James of Pittsburg said his father claimed kinship with the father of Doctor John Pentland Mahaffey, of Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland.

Therefore, logically speaking, this branch of the Mahaffey family are of the same stock as the above-mentioned branches in Ireland.

Second Generation

2 <sup>1</sup>JOHN MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> (Thomas,<sup>1</sup>)

John Mahaffey, the eldest son of Thomas and Elizabeth Lindsey Mahaffey, was born February 25, 1771, in East Pennsborough township, Cumberland county, Pa. His parents settled in Lycoming county in 1773. He married Lydia Bailey, who was born August 18, 1778, in Chester county, Pa.

John Mahaffey died September 22, 1848, and his wife, March 26, 1864. They lived in Lycoming county, one mile above the Moses Mahaffey place, and here their children were born.

John Mahaffey, about whom very little information is available, is described as an unusually large man, weighing about 240 pounds. They had ten children:

- 8 <sup>1</sup>Elizabeth Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Oct. 5, 1800, m. ——— Wilson.
- 9 <sup>2</sup>Sarah Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Sept. 19, 1802, m. Joseph Rathmell.
- 10 <sup>3</sup>William Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Oct. 1, 1804, m. Susan Bowers.
- 11 <sup>4</sup>Mary Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Sept. 20, 1806, m. first, John, second, Mann.
- 12 <sup>5</sup>John Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Jan. 31, 1809, m. ——— Knight.
- 13 <sup>6</sup>Esther Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Apr. 11, 1811, m. Henry Richard, d. Nov. 1, 1845.
- 14 <sup>7</sup>Margaret Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Nov. 2, 1813, m. Thomas Corter.
- 15 <sup>8</sup>Thomas Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Mar. 3, 1816, d. unmarried.
- 16 <sup>9</sup>Lydia Ann Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. Sept. 18, 1819, m. John Ball.
- 17 <sup>10</sup>Nathan Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. June 24, 1822, d. Oct. 16, 1856.

Elizabeth Mahaffey, second child, and eldest daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Lindsey Mahaffey, was born 1773, and died in 1865. She was the mother of Joseph Hall, later in life married a Mr. Tallman, and they had several children.

- 24 <sup>1</sup>Joseph Hall,<sup>3</sup> b. 1819, m. Eliza Graff Bitting.

William Mahaffey, third child of Thomas and Elizabeth Lindsey Mahaffey, was born in Lycoming county, Pa., in the year 1779, was married in 1806 to Nancy Bennett, who was born 1784. She was the daughter of John and Margaret Clendenin Bennett, of Woodward township, Lycoming county, Pa.

They first lived on a farm near the old Mahaffey homestead, but in 1827 he moved his family to Clearfield county, purchased a tract of land on the river at Burnside, and built a log house on the present site of the Horace Patchin house. In 1828 his wife, Nancy Bennett, died, leaving six sons.

In 1830 William Mahaffey married Elizabeth Talbert, and in 1833 returned to Lycoming county, leaving his three sons and his brother James on the land. A few years prior to his death he came to live with his son John, near Cherry Tree, Pa. His second wife died in 1849, leaving two daughters.

A grand-daughter says: "I remember grandfather as quite tall, with a cheery, open countenance, a mild blue eye, quite bald and wore side whiskers. His style of dress was that of a gentleman of his times, blue broadcloth suit, plaited bosom white linen shirt, with a black silk stock, but not the flaring collar above, just a neat turnover collar of linen. He was our confidante and play-fellow, and entered into our childish sports with zest. We were fond of hearing grandfather's tales and jokes, the telling of which was his delight. He spoke of his mother with the greatest reverence, saying, 'She was a good, Christian mother.'"

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. One of the few things he brought with him to his son's home was his large family Bible, bound in red Morocco. He died in 1859, and is buried in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, at Cherry Tree, Pa. The children of William and Nancy Bennett were:

She died and was buried in Louisiana. Left her property to Clayton Mahaffey son of Thomas Mahaffey, 3rd. 2. Jane first married George Johnson, and had one daughter, Georgiana. Married a second time to John Hoyt, and they had several children

5 <sup>4</sup>MOSES MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> (Thomas.<sup>1</sup>)

Moses Mahaffey, fourth child of Thomas and Elizabeth Lindsey Mahaffey, was born August 8, 1781. He married Mary, daughter of David Reynolds, who came from Orange county, New York, and was the first settler on Trout Run, Lycoming county. In person Moses Mahaffey was a man quite tall and straight, had blue eyes and light hair, but not much of it (a Mahaffey trait). He and his wife were Presbyterians, she joining the Methodist Church later in life. He was a Whig, later a Republican, filling various township offices. He lived for years in the old Mahaffey homestead, and died there March 20, 1851, his wife surviving him until March 27, 1857, when she died in her 93rd year. They had seven children, as follows:

- 25 <sup>1</sup>Sarah Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. Feb. 9, 1812, d. Sept. 21, 1831.

John Mahaffey, eldest son of William and Nancy Bennett Mahaffey, born in Lycoming county, Pa., in the year 1807. When twenty years old the family moved to Burnside, Clearfield county, Pa. The mother being in feeble health, was his special care, and she received at his hands the loving ministrations of a devoted son. He was married December 24, 1833, to Ellen Boyer, by the Rev. Robert Simonton, the first M. P. minister in Clearfield county, at her father's home, near New Washington, Pa.

In 1837, the Burnside place was sold and John moved his family to New Washington, where they lived with his wife's parents, while he went to Illinois with a view to locating in that section, his brother Thomas accompanying him. Not finding the country to their liking they returned to Clearfield county. John then bought a tract of land near Cherry Tree, and in 1845 built on the banks of the Susquehanna, one mile below town, the second frame house in that section of the country. This place was named "Locust Villa." The house was a story and a half high, with three dormer windows in the roof facing front. These windows have since been removed. In 1888 he moved to Cherry Tree, to be nearer his children, Margaret and William, buying the Jesse Harter house.

Grandfather was at least six feet tall, had clear, blue eyes, was clean shaven and had the usual "Mahaffey" scarcity of hair, and as his grandchildren remember him, was never seen without a cane, and always carried his silk bandanna handkerchief in his large, soft, black, felt hat. He used some expressions that will never be forgotten. When provoked, or ordinary language failed to express his feelings, he would say with emphasis, "Jiminy." He always called a saucer, a "sasser," and told a granddaughter she was the "sassiest girl in three counties."

Absolute fairness in all his dealings, mixed with unusual benevolence and unselfishness, made him a man esteemed and beloved by all. Although very modest in deportment, he was a man of his own mind, and in matters of local interest, his opinion was sought and respected.

He and his wife were members of the M. P. Church, his wife joining at the early age of fourteen years. He died at his home in Cherry Tree, Pa., in 1890, and was buried in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, near town.

Ellen Boyer, wife of John Mahaffey, and only daughter of John and Mary Colgin Boyer, was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., in 1811, and moved with her parents to New Washington, Clearfield county, in 1821. She was the only white girl in Burnside township at that time, and was the idol of her parents and six brothers. In young girlhood she attended school at Birmingham, Huntingdon county, riding horse-back to and from that place at the beginning and close of sessions. She was married at the age of twenty years and proved a capable, devoted help-mate, and a loving, indulgent mother. Her grandchildren were dear to her heart, particularly the first ones, whom she loved to hold in her arms, singing as she rocked them to sleep. The older grandchildren can well remember these songs. One of them went like this:

"I had a little hen, and her name was Cra Creen,
 She laid an egg every day worth a farthing—
 She went to the woods through rain and hail—
 And carried wood home again packed on her tail.
 Cra Creen! Cra Creen! where is your nest?
 Under the green ivy tree that I love best—
 Where all the little birds sing for you and me."

You being replaced by the name of the particular grandchild to whom she was singing.

Grandmother was a well preserved woman at eighty. Before they moved to Cherry Tree it was no unusual occurrence for her to walk both ways, a good two miles. She was always active and industrious, and when not busy with household duties was either reading, sewing or knitting. She knit three counterpanes after she was eighty years old. Grandmother had black hair, slightly silvered, grey eyes and a good complexion, very erect and rather large; was jolly and a good companion. Was generous to the poor, and in her efforts to relieve suffering, untiring. She and her husband celebrated their golden wedding in 1883. She outlived him seven years. In 1897 she died and was buried by his side. The children that blessed this union were:

- 62 <sup>1</sup>Mary Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1834, m. Jackson Patchin.
- 63 <sup>2</sup>Margaret Bennett Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1836, m. Porter Kinports.
- 64 <sup>3</sup>Creacy Ann Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1841, m. Rev. S. F. Crother.
- 65 <sup>4</sup>Nancy J. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1843, d. 1867.
- 66 <sup>5</sup>William T. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1848, m. first, J. J. Patchin, second, Sarah Edmonson.
- 67 <sup>6</sup>Elizabeth Ellen Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1851, d. 1854.
- 68 <sup>7</sup>Infant son.

19 <sup>2</sup>THOMAS MAHAFFEY,<sup>3</sup> (William,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

Thomas, second son of William and Nancy Bennett Mahaffey, was born in Lycoming county in 1809. Moved with his brothers to Clearfield county in 1827. In 1833 he married Margaret, daughter of Rev. David and Elizabeth Mitchell, who was born in 1810. He went West with his brother John, but returned and bought the Gallagher farm, on which was a double log house. This was the first one built in the village of New Washington. He built a log barn, and about 1848, built a new house. In 1855 his wife died, and in 1856 he married Harriet Woodford, who was born in 1826. He was a lumberman and farmer, and spent his last days in New Washington. He died in 1890 and was buried in Mt. Zion cemetery.

Thomas and Margaret Mitchell Mahaffey had nine children :

- 69 <sup>1</sup>Elizabeth J. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1834, m. John Commings.
- 70 <sup>2</sup>William Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1836, m. Mary M. Estricher.
- 71 <sup>3</sup>Robert Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1838, m. Margaret E. Feath.
- 72 <sup>4</sup>Nancy Bennett Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1840, d. 1863.

All residing in Philadelphia, Pa.

Robert Mahaffey, fifth son of William and Nancy Bennett Mahaffey, was born in Locoming county, Pa., May 4, 1815.

Moved with his family to Clearfield county in 1827. He with his brothers were engaged in lumbering and farming. At the age of twenty two he bought two tracts of land near the present site of Mahaffey, containing 417 acres. Here he cleared enough land for a good farm and operated the first water power saw-mill in that section of the country. He lived here for a quarter of a century, then moved across the river into town. His home was then the "Mecca" of raftsmen, and on more than one occasion he fed and slept one hundred watermen. About 1854 he entered into partnership with John M. Comings and they opened a store in New Washington. Later they opened another at Ostend. The partnership was continued for ten years. In 1868 a store-room was built and a large store opened in Mahaffey, the town that bears his name. Here he continued business until declining years compelled him to retire. He was a Presbyterian in faith, a Democrat in politics, and a man of high integrity and he was much respected by all. He died September 16, 1901. Robert Mahaffey was twice married. His first marriage occurred in 1841, with Mary McGee, daughter of James McGee, one of the earliest settlers of this section. To this marriage were three children born:—

On December 19, 1847, he entered into marriage (the second time) with Mary Catherine Johnston, of McGee's Mills, who was born December 29, 1826. They lived for some time on the old homestead, "across the river," but about 1870 moved to the fine old place in town. Aunt Kate, as she was familiarly called by all who knew her, was a wonderful character, and few women of her day, or any day, could accomplish what she did. Many a night when those lumbermen were under the shelter of her home, or camped in the barn, she would spend the entire night baking biscuit. Houses of public entertainment were few, and far between in those days, and this house was never known to close its doors against the stranger seeking shelter. Small wonder then that "Aunt Kate and Uncle Rob" were known, and loved, far and near. She was a faithful worker in the Methodist Church, of which she was a member. She survived her husband several years, her mind remaining active and clear to the last. She died May 21, 1913. There were nine children born to this union:

- 90 <sup>1</sup>Robert Frank Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1848, m. Emma Cook.
- 91 <sup>2</sup>Emory M. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1852, m. Mallie Thompson.
- 92 <sup>3</sup>S. Elizabeth Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1854, m. George Furger-son.
- 93 <sup>4</sup>Nancy J. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1857, m. George M. Jose.
- 94 <sup>5</sup>George Thomas Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. June 13, 1860, drowned 1863.
- 95 <sup>6</sup>Alice M. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1863, m.        }
      F. R. Patterson.                       } Twins.
- 96 <sup>7</sup>Boyd Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1863, d. 1863.       }
- 97 <sup>8</sup>Harry B. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1866, m. Gertrude Shipman.
- 98 <sup>9</sup>Elsie Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1869, m. Bert. Gallatley.

Lindsey Mahaffey, eldest son of Moses and Mary Reynolds Mahaffey, was born in old Lycoming Township, Lycoming county, Pa., August 13, 1814. Was educated in New York State and at Williamsport Academy. Located in Newberry, Pa., in 1836, and embarked in mercantile business, at which he continued for twenty-four years, after which time he spent the balance of his life superintending his farms and real estate holdings in Newberry. Was one of the original stockholders of the West Branch National Bank, and for many years was the oldest director of that institution, a position he held for over forty years. In 1858 he was elected to the State Legislature, and served on several important committees. Was for many years president of Select Council of Williamsport, and for a number of years a member of Brandon Park Commission. Was a Whig, and later a staunch Republican, serving as a delegate to the Republican National Convention that nominated Abraham Lincoln for President. Was first Revenue Collector for district comprising Centre, Clinton, Lycoming and Tioga counties. His favorite saying was, "A person is only as old as he feels," and the writer recalls that when 84 years of age he chided the conductor of a street car for bringing the car to a full stop to let him off. He wanted to jump off while the car was moving. He was married twice. In the year 1849 to Sarah Jane Riley, who died in 1867. His second marriage occurred in 1886, when he married Mrs. Sarah Jane Straight. Lindsey and Sarah Jane Riley had born to them four children, who were:

- 99 <sup>1</sup>David Luttle Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1850, m. Alice E. Shaw.
- 100 <sup>2</sup>Delos L. Mehaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1856, m. Mary Ann Lentz.
- 101 <sup>3</sup>Eleanor Jane Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. —, m. Luther Mohr Otto.
- 102 <sup>4</sup>Boyd C. Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1853, d. 1872.
Lindsey Mahaffey died in 1897.

27 <sup>3</sup>DAVID REYNOLDS MAHAFFEY,<sup>3</sup> (Moses,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey,<sup>1</sup>)

David Reynolds Mahaffey, third child of Moses and Mary Reynolds Mahaffey, was born November 8, 1816. Was married to Phoebe Thompson, February, 1844, who was born March 8, 1822. They lived in Newberry, Pa. He died March 2, 1892, his wife dying April 20, 1894. They had three children:

- 103 <sup>1</sup>James Lindsey Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1844, m. Sallie G. Hoylman.
- 104 <sup>2</sup>Mary Elizabeth Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1847, m. Joseph G. Hull
- 105 <sup>3</sup>Margaret Matilda Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. 1850, m. George M. Youngman.

William J., sixth child of Moses and Mary Reynolds Mahaffey, was born January 13, 1824, at the old Mahaffey homestead on Lycoming creek, where he lived his entire life. He first devoted his time to farming, but later, in 1860, succeeded his brother Lindsey in the mercantile business; still later he entered the oil fields at Bradford, Pa. Also became a contractor and built the majority of old wooden bridges in Lycoming county. In 1879 he became Superintendent of the Tidewater Pipe Line Co., his district extending from Bradford to Muncy, Pa. He was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth Eldridge. On December 22nd, 1868, he married Catherine Reguel Updegraff, who was born January 6, 1844. He died March 11, 1886, his wife and two children residing in Williamsport, Pa. His children were:

Sarah Jane, eldest daughter of William and Susan Bower Mahaffey, was born October 15, 1824. Married Thomas Blair, of Williamsport, Pa., August 11, 1842, and shortly after, with a party of friends, namely, Thomas Blair and wife, Peter Blair, Joshua Gardner, wife and family, Eli Lentz and William Taylor set out for Ohio, traveling en route by wagon, arriving at Williams Centre, four miles from Bryan, Ohio, October 15, 1842.

This section of Ohio was then a vast wilderness, inhabited by Indians and wild game. This first winter was a hard one for these pioneers, the young wife had to take the straw out of the beds, sprinkle with flour and feed to the horses to keep them from starving.

It was eighteen miles to Defiance, the then nearest trading post, and the journey was usually made on foot, as there was only a blazed trail through the woods.

The men usually carried a bundle of deer hides to trade for groceries. A mail only arrived once in two weeks, with twenty-five cents duty to be paid, if one were so fortunate as to get a letter.

A daughter, writing of her mother, says: "Mother was good, kind and loving, a devoted Christian, a member of the United Brethren Church. Boasting many friends and was a jolly companion. She was brave and fearless, an expert horsewoman, could ride or drive anything in the horseflesh line." She died November 27, 1891. There were ten children born to Thomas and Sarah Jane Mahaffey Blair:

- 127 <sup>1</sup>Susan E. Blair,<sup>5</sup> b. 1843, m. Jesse Fisher.

was born in 1843. Was born and reared in Lycoming county; has been a resident of Williamsport, Pa., for many years, where he has been very successful in the lumber business, beginning when a boy twenty years of age. He has accumulated quite a fortune, and at the present time has large lumber interests in the western states of Oregon and Washington.

Mr. Hall has taken an active part in the "Mahaffey Clan" organization, has acted as one of a committee on entertainment for some years. For the past four years he has entertained the entire Clan at a banquet, given by himself, free of charge, at the beautiful "Acasia Club," the finest club building in the eastern part of the state, of which he is one-third owner, it having been built at a cost of $150,000.

Mr. Hall is a very quiet, unassuming man, never known to speak in public, excepting at the meeting of the Clan in August, 1913. At the beginning of the programme he addressed over 300 of the guests, which proved a most agreeable surprise. The oldest persons present that knew him from a child, remarked, "It was the first time they ever saw him appear before an audience."

Mr. Hall stands at the head of the business men of his city; his word is just as good as his bond, which can be said, due, to the good "Mahaffey" blood in his veins.

The writer wishes to add in conclusion, that Mr. Hall has made it possible to publish the "Mahaffey Descendants History," by aiding the President of the Clan in the financial part of the work, which is truly a very necessary part. And it can be said of him:

"A most generous man to the "Mahaffey Clan,"

In his quiet, unassuming way;

This memorial will live in the minds of man,

For it is such that will never decay."

- 59 <sup>1</sup>JAMES B. HALL,<sup>4</sup> (Joseph Hall,<sup>3</sup> Elizabeth Hall,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

James B. Hall, seventh child of Joseph and Eliza Bitting Hall, was born in 1856, married Emma Young, and to this union was born two children:

- 181 <sup>1</sup>Harry L. Hall,<sup>5</sup> m. Ruth Berdershacher; they have one child, a daughter:

473 <sup>1</sup>Helen Louise Hall.<sup>6</sup>

- 182 <sup>2</sup>John L. Hall, 2nd.<sup>5</sup>

- 60 <sup>8</sup>MATTHEW M. HALL,<sup>4</sup> (Joseph Hall,<sup>3</sup> Elizabeth Hall,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

Mathew Hall, eighth child of Joseph and Eliza Bitting Hall, was born in 1859. Married Mary Young in 1885. Three children to them were born:

- 183 <sup>1</sup>Grace Hall,<sup>5</sup> b. 1886, m. Porter Keyte in 1909.

- 62 <sup>1</sup>MARY MAHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (John,<sup>3</sup> William,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

Mary Mahaffey, eldest child of John and Ellen Boyer Mahaffey, was born in the year 1834, in Burnside, Clearfield Co., Pa. Was married Jan. 1, 1856, to Jackson Patchin, son of John and Elizabeth Patchin, at "Locust Villa," near Cherry Tree, Pa., by Rev. Robert Simonton.

Her husband was a merchant and lumberman at Patchinville, Pa.; here they went to housekeeping, and here their children, two sons, were born. Later they moved to Burnside.

She was a member of the M. P. Church, and a woman of unusual benevolence and charity. She was much beloved in her community and sadly mourned at her death, which occurred suddenly while on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Crowther, of East End, Pittsburgh, in 1891. She and her husband are buried in the family lot, in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, at Cherry Tree, Pa. The children of this union are:

- 186 <sup>1</sup>Elmer Patchin,<sup>5</sup> born Oct., 1856, married in 1892, to Emma Conner, daughter of John and ———

Conner. They live at Boswell, Pa., and to them were six children born:

- 474 <sup>1</sup>John Donald Patchin,<sup>6</sup> b. April 5, 1893.
- 475 <sup>2</sup>William Lynn Patchin,<sup>6</sup> b. June 20, 1894.
- 476 <sup>3</sup>Herbert Patchin,<sup>6</sup> b. April 1, 1902.
- 477 <sup>4</sup>Joseph Patchin,<sup>6</sup> b. March 3, 1904.
- 478 <sup>5</sup>Mary Emily,<sup>6</sup> b. Aug. 7, 1907, d. Sept. 27, 1907.

(Six children. Only five named in original MSS.)

- 187 <sup>2</sup>Frank Everett Patchin, second son of Mary Mahaffey and Jackson Patchin, was born in 1858, a bachelor, making his home with his brother, Elmer.

- 63 <sup>2</sup>MARGARET BENNETT MAHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (John,<sup>3</sup> William,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

Margaret Bennett, second child of John and Ellen Boyer Mahaffey, and oldest living grandchild of William Mahaffey, was born April 30, 1837, at Burnside, Clearfield Co., Pa.

As a child she remembers playing with a string of solid silver buttons which had been cut from a coat belonging to some of her Mahaffey forbears. These buttons were afterwards made into teaspoons, and are highly prized by those who possess them. As she grew older she went about the place with her father, often helping him calculate lumber, or with his books at night.

She was united in marriage to Porter Kinports, Sept. 15, 1859, at "Locust Villa." The Rev. John Kennedy, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

She has personal recollections of both paternal and maternal grandfathers. In a personal conversation with her as to relationship of some of the family lines she told the writer this: "I well remember that my grandfather William (2) met and conversed with James (2) Mahaffey, of Marietta, Pa., at a Fourth of July celebration held at Cherry Tree, Pa., and during their conversation they traced a direct relationship. They were first cousins, of their fathers were." This matter being uncertain in my mind. If they were cousins, then James (1) and Thomas (1) were brothers; if the fathers were cousins, then the grandfathers were brothers, and makes the Lancaster county Mahaffeyes and the Lycoming county Mahaffeyes of the same stock.

Margaret Bennett, at seventy-seven, is a well preserved woman, with an Irish grey eye, hair somewhat silvered, once black; a rosy complexion, and rather an erect carriage. Her ready wit and unselfish disposition make her a charming companion, and she is held in high esteem by all who know her. Her home, "The Maples," at Cherry Tree, has always been noted for its genial atmosphere, and friends and strangers alike have shared its hospitality. She still resides there.

Porter Kinports, son of John and Mary Rench Kinports, was born at Frankstown, near Hollidaysburg, Pa., Sept. 6, 1831. In early boyhood his family moved to that section of Cambria county, contiguous to Canoe Place, now called Cherry Tree, when his older brothers engaged in farming and the mercantile and lumber business, he helping them in the outdoor work on the farm and woods work. At a suitable age he went to College at Lewisburg, Pa., now Bucknell University, and would have graduated with his class of 1856 had not the illness of his brother Gideon demanded his presence at home. This illness followed by death, and a few years later the death of his brother David, left him and his brother James the sole surviving male members of the family. He then assumed charge of the business, which he successfully conducted throughout.

In 1859 he married Margaret Mahaffey, and lived in the farmhouse near Cherry Tree until 1876, when he moved his family to the village. He was highly esteemed in his locality among business associates, as a man of ability, honor and integrity. Of him it could be well said, "His word was as good as his bond."

He was president of the First National Bank of Cherry Tree from the time of its incorporation in 1903 until his death. In matters of local interest he was ever wide awake and ready to promote anything for the good of the public, but often laughingly remarked that the most honorable office to which he could be elected in local politics was "overseer of the poor," which office he held quite often. He was a Democrat, and seemed proud of that fact, although hopelessly in the minority in his village. He was a member of the Noble Lodge of Masons, Curwinsville, Pa.; Moshannon Commandery, Philipsburg, and Williamsport Consistory, and Jaffa Temple, Altoona.

He and his wife were members of the M. P. Church. He died at his residence in Cherry Tree, Pa., March 5, 1912, and was buried in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, the Masons conducting the burial. Porter and Margaret Kinports had ten children:

- 188 <sup>1</sup>Minnette Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1860, m. John Driscoll.
- 189 <sup>2</sup>John Clyde Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1862, m. Belle Lydic.
- 190 <sup>3</sup>Gertrude Maude,<sup>5</sup> b. 1864, m. Joseph A. Wilson.
- 191 <sup>4</sup>David Allen,<sup>5</sup> b. 1865, d. 1883.
- 192 <sup>5</sup>Elfreda Ellen Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1866, d. 1869.
- 193 <sup>6</sup>Dr. William Mahaffey Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1869, d. 1895.
(A graduate of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania.)
- 194 <sup>7</sup>Mary Estelle,<sup>5</sup> b. 1870, m. George N. Davis.
- 195 <sup>8</sup>Boyd W. Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1872, m. Glenn O'Donnell.
- 196 <sup>9</sup>Nancy Bennett Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1874, d. 1899.
- 197 <sup>10</sup>Inez Kinports,<sup>5</sup> b. 1880, d. 1892.

Creacy Ann, third child of John and Ellen Boyer Mahaffey, was born in 1841, at her grandfather's home, near New Washington. She married Rev. S. F. Crowther, of Greensburg, Ohio, son of Samuel and Ellen Crowther, of Venango Co., March 15, 1860, by the Rev. J. P. Kennedy. Their attendants were J. E. Pittman and Miss H. J. Forsythe. During her married life she lived in many places, but at last settled in East End, Pittsburgh, where she died in 1891, and was buried in Homewood Cemetery; her husband died in 1910.

The children of Creacy Mahaffey and Rev. Crowther were:

- 193 <sup>1</sup>Annette Elanor Crowther,<sup>5</sup> m. James Mays Donaghy, No. 5766 Baum Boulevard, E. E. Pittsburgh, Pa. They had three children:
  - 481 <sup>1</sup>Lillian Donaghy,<sup>6</sup> m. Edward F. Whipps, 1910.

William T., son of John and Ellen Boyer Mahaffey, was born June 25, 1848, at "Locust Villa," near Cherry Tree, Pa. He was married to Julia J., eldest daughter of Col. Clark and Hettie Graham Patchin, at Glen Hope, Clearfield Co., Pa., October 17, 1876, by his brother-in-law, Rev. S. F. Crowther. For a year or more they made their home with his father, then moved to Cherry Tree. In 1894 his wife died. She was from the age of fourteen years a member of the Methodist Church and was a gentle, Christian woman, devoted to her family and their interests. She was the mother of six children.

W. T. Mahaffey married a second time, December 18, 1902, Sarah Edmondson, daughter of A. C. and Mary Edmondson, of McKeesport, Pa., highly esteemed and respected in her community. She has been a member of the Presbyterian Church from the age of fourteen years and is an active, earnest worker. Her husband a member of the M. P. Church since 1876, joined the Presbyterian Church with her in 1904.

William T. Mahaffey has been President of the "Mahaffey Clan" from its organization, and has been instrumental in gathering a great deal of the Irish data of the Clan, as he and his son Leroy, visited Ireland and the homes of some of the name in that country; owing to the loyalty of this good man one of the Historians was prompted to write this verse:

"OUR PRESIDENT."

Large of stature, large of heart,
He has played the hero's part.
Standing by this sturdy clan—
Truly he has proved a man
Of sterling worth. . Laud his praise
For his grit, in many ways
You can prove to him your joy;
Matters not if girl or boy;

Aged too, can grasp his hand—
 Tell the clan in foreign land
 How our President, so true,
 Led these people till they grew
 Large enough to fill a book—
 So fellow Clansmen kindly look
 O'er these pages, till you find
 A beaming face, eyes most kind—
 Dwell a moment with content,
 Upon our noble "President."

Mr. Mahaffey, when only 13 years of age, was Drum Major in Co. D., 78th Reg., Penn. Vol., in '61 and '62.

For some years he was President of the Indiana County Sabbath-School Association. He and his wife reside at Cherry Tree, Pa. The children of W. T. and Julia Patchin Mahaffey were:

- 566 <sup>3</sup>Hannah Cornelia Thompson,<sup>6</sup> b. May 10, 1909.

- 105 <sup>3</sup>MARGARET MATILDA MAHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (David R.,<sup>3</sup> Moses,<sup>2</sup> Thomas Mahaffey,<sup>1</sup>)

Margaret Matilda, third and youngest child of David Reynolds and Phœbe Thompson Mahaffey, was born Janaury 2, 1850. She married George W. Youngman, and they lived at Anter's Creek, several miles above Newberry. They had seven children. In 1889, when the whole world was shocked and stirred by the disaster at Johnstown, the majority of this family, and the home was wiped out of existence by a similar flood. The scene of the tragedy on that awful night beggars description. A happy gathering of friends to witness the closing exercises of the little home school, presided over by a charming governess. A leaving of some of the guests, some having been detained at home by threatening clouds. After tea, music and conversation, but continued rain, until bedtime.

A growing uneasiness by the husband, and father, as to whether the dam, a short distance above the house might hold, no fear at all of the house being disturbed because of high water, as it had stood through similar experiences. A retiring to rest, but uneasy slumbers, aroused at two o'clock by the storm raging in fury, investigation proved waters rising rapidly, bridges swept away—retreat to mountain cut off. Thinking the dam had broken, and that the waters would soon recede, the twelve inmates of the house, although on the alert were not fearful. Soon logs and trees began to bump the house, and room by room it began to give way, and then the angry torrent was apparent to all. The bravery and Christian fortitude of the wife and mother, with her six-months-old babe clasped to her breast, the calmness and heroism of the governess, Miss Eliza Phelps, and the manliness of the little son, who prepared with his father to save any that he could, are only a few of the details that can be mentioned—but oh! the awfulness of it all. Then that last terrible crash, when the angry waters engulf those precious forms and the fight for life begins. Not many to be saved, with the odds so fearfully against them. Eight out of twelve was the fearful toll exacted—the mother and governess, a guest and five children.

position of "Clan Historian," which he held at the time of his death. The following verse written by the Assistant Historian, will, I think, voice the sentiments of the majority, relative to the work, and labor of our "Historian."

"Untiring in her efforts,
 She has labored long and well.
 Little of herself you read—
 So my friends, I'm going to tell
 In simple rhyme the story
 Of how much we owe to her.
 She labored not for praises—
 No! perhaps it might occur
 To you, that she is human,
 And deserving well the praise—
 So here's to our "Historian"—
 And we hope in many ways
 To prove to her our gratitude,
 May God reward her well—
 Since man so little seems to give,
 May she long amongst us dwell."

CONCLUSION.

Thus endeth the Lycoming branch,
A goodly number too ;
They do not boast of lordly names—
But speak of how they grew
From one good man, into a clan,
Generous—Noble—True.
Including all who bear their name,
To help—to dare—to do.

But when we say Lycoming branch,
We wish it understood,
That this includes the name of those
In Clearfield—where boyhood
And girlhood days by many spent,
Now drifted far and wide ;
Yet to the branch you do adhere,
No matter what betide.

LANCASTER COUNTY BRANCH

624 JAMES MAHAFFEY, or McHAFFEY, the progenitor of the Lancaster county Mahaffeys, was born in the northern part of Ireland, and was the son of James Mahaffey, 1st. He emigrated to America, and settled in Little Bertian township, Lancaster Co., Pa., on the farm adjoining the one on which Robert Fulton lived.

One "James McHaffey," (supposed to be this same James) enlisted in Captain Ross' company at Lancaster, Lancaster Co., Pa., May 1, 1775, as a private in the Revolutionary War. He arrived in camp at Cambridge Aug. 18, 1775, remained with Washington's army near Boston during the Fall of 1775, engaged in skirmishes with the enemy near Charleston. The company lost one man and one taken prisoner. James McHaffey re-enlisted May 1, 1776, continued with Washington's army during Fall in vicinity of New York and New Jersey, and went into Winter quarters at Morristown. In its last services Captain Ross' company took prominent and honorable part in battles of Brandywine, Germantown, Paoli, Monmouth and several other engagements, and continued in the field to the end of the war.

The writer is responsible for much of the above data, having found it, in making research in the history of Lancaster county, facts and dates coincide, so the conclusion was reached that the war history applied to our progenitor of the Lancaster county branch of Mahaffeys.

James Mahaffey, son of James, progenitor of the Lancaster county Mahaffeys, was born June 12, 1781; married Mary Cochran, who was born Nov. 25, 1787. They lived in Marietta, Pa. Mr. Mahaffey was extensively engaged in the lumber business, and a prominent man of affairs in his community.

We find a change in the spelling of the name, Mr. Mahaffey having a large correspondence found it easier to write by dropping the Mc, writing it Mahaffey, a popular form of spelling the name. He was an elder in the Donegal Presbyterian Church; died Jan. 1, 1851, was buried in the Marietta Cemetery. He was followed in death by his wife, Jan. 26, 1868. James and Mary Cochran Mahaffey were the parents of twelve children:

- 626 <sup>1</sup>Samuel Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. 1808, m. Mary Cassel.
- 627 <sup>2</sup>Andrew Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. 1811, m. Elizabeth McPherson.

CONCLUSION.

Though brief your sketch, much it contains,

Great honor is your claim—

Since you can boast fair Lancaster,

Of the "Mahaffey" name

First settling in your fertile land,

And still hold forth the name;

You sent it broadcast o'er the land,

With Honor, Trust and Fame.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY

662 CHARLES MAHAFFEY, progenitor of the Cumberland county Mahaffeys, emigrated from the northern part of Ireland to this country previous to June, 1753.

In making research we find mention in the History of Cumberland county that Charles and Guain Mahaffey were included in the earliest settlers in that section of the country, all being mentioned of Scotch-Irish descent and of Presbyterian faith.

We also find recorded in the land title department of the State, that a warrant was granted Charles Mahaffey, Jan. 29, 1753, for 185 acres of land, situated on the south side of the Yellow Breeches Creek, South Middleton township, Cumberland Co., Pa. According to the custom of the day it was named "Well Done."

In the year 1762 we also find a warrant granted to Thomas Mahaffey for 185 acres of land adjoining that of the Charles Mahaffey tract, this same land passing into the possession of James and Thomas Mahaffey, sons of Charles, in the year 1835; all trace of said Thomas being lost.

We also notice on the original warrant of Charles, that the adjoining land was owned by one John, and Guain Mahaffey. Guain was the brother of Charles, who never married; as for the John all trace of him is also lost; the writer has concluded, being so closely associated, that they were all brothers, or cousins, later scattered to some distant county, or state, and possibly some of the Clan included in this work descend from one of the mentioned Mahaffeys.

We have no record of the birth, marriage, or death of the said Charles, yet we know he married a Miss Allison, who was also included in the earlier settlers of that section, also of the same descent and faith. A maiden sister of the wife of Charles Mahaffey is recalled by one of his grandsons as "Aunt Sallie Allison." Yet the given name of his grandmother is not recalled. We would suppose that Charles Mahaffey was at least 21 years of age when he took title to his land; if so, he would have been born about 1732, his wife was born about 1746; died about 1854, dying at the advanced age of 108 years, having been blind for more than 25 years.

A grandson said, "I recall grandmother sitting in an arm-chair, even though her eyes were sightless, her fingers ever busy with her knitting needle." Also said, "When we would visit her she would call us to her side, ask which one it was, 'Billy or Stuart.'" She died with her son Thomas, with whom she had lived for many years.

It also has been handed down to the present generation that the Cumberland county Mahaffeys come from an old wealthy stock in Ireland. Preparations were once made for a member of the family to cross to the Emerald Isle and lay claim to the awaiting fortune, but for some reason was not carried out.

In conclusion the writer wishes to call the attention of the reader to the coincidence between the Lycoming and Clearfield county and Cumberland county branches in the way of birth dates, 1732 and 1734, similarity of original spelling, "Mehaffy," and locating in adjoining townships, namely East Pennsborough and South Middleton, at an early period the same, and last, of Thomas and Charles Mahaffey, of 1762 and 1753 owning adjoining land; her impression is, "They were either brothers, or a very close relationship."

The children born to the parents of this sketch, Charles and ——— Allison Mahaffey, were:

663 <sup>1</sup>Rebecca Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> m. James McClune.

Rebecca Mahaffey, only daughter of Charles and ——— Allison Mahaffey, married James McClune, who some time in the '40's moved his family to West Virginia, not far distant from Martinsburg, where he engaged in farming. A short time after the Civil War he died, leaving a wife and an only child:

- 668 <sup>1</sup>Sarah Allison McClune,<sup>3</sup> who married Jacob Shilling, and resided near Darkesville, West Va.; to this union no children were born. It has occurred to the writer that this would be an opportune time to establish the Christian name of her great-grandmother.

Some years ago her older sister visited in the home of Sarah McClune Shilling. Upon her return home she brought as a gift, from the Virginia cousins, a small silk shawl, to be given the author of this sketch, she being singled out because she bore the name of her great-grandmother, Mary; word was also sent that the shawl should remain in the Mahaffey family, as it had been brought to this country by the Mahaffeyes from Ireland. The shawl is of odd design (green in it of course) and very highly prized by its owner. We therefore presume hereafter to write Charles and Mary Allison Mahaffey.

Sarah Allison Shilling is described as being a very large woman, of a very kind disposition, and a true Irish face.

- 664 <sup>2</sup>ANDREW MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> (Charles Mahaffey.)

Andrew Mahaffey, son of Charles and Mary Allison Mahaffey, left the Cumberland Valley some time in the early period of the last century; his whereabouts has been entirely lost. It is known however that he had once located in the state of Ohio, as letters had been found which had been written by members of his family to their cousin Mary Ann Zeigler, daughter of Andrew's brother James A.

These letters had been destroyed by the nephew of Mary Ann Zeigler's husband, when he settled up the estate of his late uncle, not knowing they would be of any value. We trust, however, that some of the Ohio Mahaffeyes will some day prove their ancestry to originate from this said Andrew. Or possibly some of the Illinois or Indiana family of same name, as he might have moved farther west at a later period. These letters had been written previous to 1865, at which time occurred the death of Mary Ann Zeigler.

- 665 <sup>3</sup>THOMAS MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> (Charles.)

Thomas Mahaffey, son of Charles and Mary Allison Mahaffey, who remained a bachelor, spent his entire life in the vicinity of his birth. Is described as being a very large man, very tall, with kindly eyes and a jovial, talkative disposition.

He owned a farm adjoining his brother James, where he and his mother lived, she dying a short time before he. He is buried at Carlisle, Pa., as is also his mother.

James A. Mahaffey, son of Charles and Mary Allison Mahaffey, was born Aug. 4, 1793; died, 1870; was married to Elizabeth Johnston Wareham, about 1827, who was born April 6, 1806; died Nov. 26, 1848.

James Mahaffey was a farmer, a man beloved by old and young in the community in which he lived. The most strict observance of the Presbyterian faith was practiced in his home. He and his wife worshiped in the old Presbyterian church at Carlisle, Pa., it being told by one of his sons that when they came home from church the meal was ate that had been prepared the day previous, following which every one sat down and read or passed the day in a quiet manner.

James Mahaffey was a tall, sparely built man, with small, keen, black eyes; a whig in politics, prominent in debating societies; a son said, "Father would attend all the debating societies far and near, would take us little chaps along; we, of course, would fall asleep and fall from the bench in the old school-house, to the floor; then he would say, 'Boys, I will never take you again, but 'never,' never came. One of his expressions, when addressing a gathering was, 'I wunder,' now I guess you all wunder! "

Elizabeth Wareham was of English parentage. Her grandfather, when emigrating to America, left his native land with his wife, a small son and daughter. When the vessel was out for a few days, the wife died suddenly and was buried at sea. After landing, the father followed his wife in death in a short time, thus leaving the orphan boy and girl to be reared in the home of strangers. The girl was reared in the home of the grandfather of James G. Blain. This orphan girl, of course, was the mother of Elizabeth Johnston Wareham, who married James A. Mahaffey, and to them were born a family of eight:

- 669 <sup>1</sup>John Philip Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. 1828, m. Susannah E. Ensminger.
 674 <sup>6</sup>Stuart Wareham Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. 1841, m. Susannah Harbold (1); Mary Troup Firestone (2).
 675 <sup>7</sup>William S. Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. 1844, m. (1) Ellen Redifer, (2) Mary Shadle.
 676 <sup>8</sup>Adam Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. July 9, 1847, d. Jan. 7, 1848.

Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey died when but 42 years of age, leaving this large family to be cared for by her fifteen-year-old daughter. She is buried at Carlisle, Pa. James A. Mahaffey is buried at Newport, Pa.

667 <sup>5</sup>JOHN MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> (Charles Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

John Mahaffey, youngest child of Charles and Mary Allison Mahaffey, was born Sept. 25, 1801; died Nov. 2, 1854; was married to Elizabeth ———, who was born March 9, 1803; died, Aug. 21, 1881.

John Mahaffey was a farmer. Some time after his marriage he moved from his home township to one farther west in the same county, where he resided for quite a time. Later he removed to the state of West Virginia, where he lived until his death. His descendants are living in that part of the state to-day. His family consisted of the following children:

- 677 <sup>1</sup>James B. Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. May 27, 1826 (died in young manhood.)
 678 <sup>2</sup>Mary Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. June 25, 1828, d. 1895, m. Peter Foreman.
 679 <sup>3</sup>Martha Ann Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. May 30, 1830, d. Dec. 29, 1863 (unmarried.)
 680 <sup>4</sup>Samuel Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. Oct. 8, 1832, d. Dec. 29, 1893 (unmarried.)
 681 <sup>5</sup>Rebecca Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. Sept. 5, 1834, d. June 3, 1901 (unmarried.)
 682 <sup>7</sup>John A. Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. Sept. 30, 1837, d. April 8, 1863 (unmarried.)
 683 <sup>8</sup>Bethsheba Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> b. Aug. 2, 1841, m. Theodore McCune.

- 669 <sup>1</sup>JOHN PHILIP MAHAFFIE,<sup>3</sup> (James A.,<sup>2</sup> Charles Mahaffey.<sup>1</sup>)

John Philip Mahaffie, eldest child of James A. and Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey, was born Jan. 22, 1828; married to Susannah Elizabeth Ensminger, who was born Nov. 11, 1832; died Nov. 11, 1908. He died Feb. 19, 1907. Both buried at Renovo, Pa.

John P. Mahaffie led a rather adventurous life; in the year 1849 he left home, joining a wagon train for Missouri. They encountered many hardships, principally savage tribes of Indians, who killed off man and beast. After receiving two arrow wounds, and a load of buck shot, which he carried to his grave, (traveling many miles before he could have the arrow heads removed and the wounds dressed), the few remaining party arrived on foot (their mules all having died from drinking from an alkali stream) in the coveted "gold fields" of California.

John Mahaffie was soon stricken with rheumatism; his doctors advised him to go to South America, which he did. After spending several years in that country he returned to his native land by way of Cape Horn. While aboard vessel he was stricken with yellow fever, and was quarantined for some time at Lima, Peru. He was quite a linguist, speaking seven languages. He followed the pursuit of a carpenter the greater part of his life. Was a most lovable man; the last several years of his life was spent in blindness. Was consistent in the Lutheran Church, as was his faithful wife, who bore him the following children:

- 684 <sup>1</sup>John Alexander Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Sept. 2, 1856, m. Sept. 20, 1900, to Selma Sophia Johnson, b. April 11, 1866; they reside at Salina, Kans.
- 685 <sup>2</sup>Johnston Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. April 23, 1860, d. Nov. 25, 1862.
- 686 <sup>3</sup>James Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Oct. 24, 1861, d. Dec. 14, 1862.
- 687 <sup>4</sup>Minnie May Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Feb. 24, 1864, at Falling Springs, Pa.
- 688 <sup>5</sup>William Sproul Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Sept. 11, 1866, m. Oct. 29, 1890, to Laura Ann Stout, b. Nov. 12, 1870; to them were born:
- 702 <sup>1</sup>James Eugene Mahaffie,<sup>5</sup> b. Dec. 30, 1892.
- 703 <sup>2</sup>Charles Evan Mahaffie,<sup>5</sup> b. April 28, 1896.

(Note the spelling of the name in this family.)

Mary Ann Mahaffey, only daughter of James A. and Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey, was born March 26, 1833, died Feb. 19, 1865, from diphtheria; was married by the Rev. Hoffman, of Carlisle, Pa., to Daniel Zeigler, a well known veterinary surgeon, Jan. 27, 1853.

Her mother dying when she was but fifteen years of age, brought the cares of a mother upon her shoulders at a very early age, which she assumed until she married; the home of her father was then broken up and the smaller children were separated, which accounts for so little knowledge of the early ancestry, the older members of the family all being dead, the younger ones cannot recall.

Mary Ann Mahaffey was a very kind, Christian woman, even though children were not born to her they were always in her home. Her younger brother, and a neice of her husband, shared its comforts, and the care of a mother. She died at an early age, and is buried at Carlisle, Pa. Her husband surviving her many years, and marrying the second time.

Thomas Mahaffey, third son of James A. and Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey, was born July 23, 1835; died Jan. 2, 1856. Was a carpenter by trade.

He left home, securing work at Harrisburg, Pa. Displaying talent for the violin, he became a noted violinist; accepting a position in a museum at New Orleans at a fine salary, was taken ill while there, thinking of home and friends no doubt, he started homeward, getting as far north as St. Louis, where he died; was buried by a friend and his effects sent home, among which was his beloved violin. This famous instrument is still in the possession of his brother Stuart, whose grandson Stuart Lowry, of Salt Lake

City, will no doubt inherit, as he, too, displays much talent for this sweet-toned instrument.

673 <sup>5</sup>JAMES ANDREW MAHAFFIE,<sup>3</sup> (James A.,<sup>2</sup> Charles.<sup>1</sup>)

James Andrew Mahaffie, fifth child of James A. and Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey, was born Oct. 5, 1838; died July 30, 1913; was married Oct. 15, 1865, to Maria Catherine Whitcomb, of Boiling Springs, Pa. They were married at Gettysburg, Pa.

James Mahaffie followed the pursuits of a huckster the most of his life, his early manhood being spent on the farm. Shortly after his marriage he located in Harrisburg, Pa., where he resided the balance of his life and reared the following family:

689 <sup>1</sup>Charles Wareham Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Dec. 28, 1866; d. Sept. 15, 1872, meeting his death by being run down by a team.

690 <sup>2</sup>Emma Catherine Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Oct. 17, 1867, d. Feb. 11, 1901.

691 <sup>3</sup>James Arthur Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. Dec. 30, 1869, d. March 4, 1894, from an injury received in an accident while out with a sleighing party. Was a member of the "City Grays," a military organization, when he met his untimely death, who gave him a military burial; was a most exemplary young man.

692 <sup>4</sup>Mary Ellen Mahaffie,<sup>4</sup> b. March 28, 1874; m. Jan. 4, 1894, to Samuel Newling Zimmerman; b. Jan. 4, 1871; children born to them:

706 <sup>1</sup>James Arthur Zimmerman,<sup>5</sup> b. Sept. 18, 1894.

(Note spelling of the name.)

Stuart Wareham Mahaffey, fifth son of James A. and Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey, was born June 22, 1841; was married Feb. 22, 1868, by the Rev. Adam Hollinger, to Susannah Harbold, daughter of George and Mary Trimmer Harbold, born Feb. 12, 1846; died Feb. 13, 1886.

Stuart W. Mahaffey spent his boyhood on the farm; later learned photography, the chemicals not agreeing with him, he learned the trade of a miller, which he followed for more than forty years, being well known throughout the State as an expert miller. He is a man of a kind and generous disposition, respected by his fellow man.

His wife died at the age of forty years, leaving seven children; she was a woman of ingenuity and spirit, of a jolly disposition and one of the most pleasant reminiscences of the writer of this sketch, is of how she would gather her little ones about her knee during the twilight hour and fill their anxious ears with wondrous tales of the Civil War, and of her girlhood pranks, which were most amusing; she was truly a good "story teller," and beside a consistent Christian woman, devoted to her chosen faith, the German Baptist, of which church her husband is also a member. She was a good mother and sadly missed by her family and a host of friends.

Following her death Stuart W. Mahaffey married the second time, Mary Troup Firestone, Sept. 20, 1894, who was born July 5, 1855; to this union there was no issue.

To his first marriage were born:

693 <sup>1</sup>Annie Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. July 31, 1868; d. Feb. 17, 1902; m. July 31, 1890, to Calvin Emerson Martin; b. Dec. 21, 1868; Annie Mahaffey Martin was a woman who possessed a Christian character to be envied; died at the early age of 34, leaving an only child to mourn her loss:

708 <sup>1</sup>Arthur Raoul Martin,<sup>5</sup> b. Feb. 17, 1891, who was married March 21, 1914, to Ruth Gouse, of Carlisle, Pa.

694 <sup>2</sup>George Harbold Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Jan. 4, 1870, m. April 30, 1902, to Elizabeth Roberts McClure, b. Jan. 9, 1880; born to them two children:

709 <sup>1</sup>Charles Walter Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. Feb. 16, 1903; d. July 3, 1903.

695 <sup>3</sup>John Wareham Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. July 8, 1871, m. Jan., 1897, to Mary E. Lowry, of Salt Lake City, Utah; b. March 17, 1873; d. March 2, 1914; born to this union one child:

711 <sup>1</sup>Stuart Lowry Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. April 23, 1898.

- 696 <sup>4</sup>Mary Ellen Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Feb. 8, 1873, m. June 23, 1898, to Jesse Clark Carst, b. April 8, 1869. Mary E. Mahaffey aspires to a small amount of literary talent, being the author of a book of poems, entitled, "Home Spun Jewels," besides several songs.
- 697 <sup>5</sup>Della Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Dec. 16, 1874, d. April 16, 1875.
- 698 <sup>6</sup>Fanny Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. July 19, 1876, m. Sept. 1897, to Samuel Elmer Minium, b. Dec. 19, 1871; a daughter born to them:
- 712 <sup>1</sup>Kathleen Minium,<sup>5</sup> b. July 25, 1898, d. Feb. 18, 1899.
- 699 <sup>7</sup>Clara Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. June 21, 1878, m. to Warren Edward Slonaker, March 25, 1902, who was born Nov. 27, 1873.
- 700 <sup>8</sup>Charles Sherman Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. July 21, 1882, was m. to Rose Mary Daugherty, of Pittsburg, Pa., May 30, 1906, b. June 3, 1881.

William S. Mahaffey, sixth son of James A. and Elizabeth Wareham Mahaffey, was born April 17, 1844. Married to Ellen Redifer, who was born April 30, 1850; died November 17, 1882. After the death of his first wife, William S. married Mary Shadle, a chum of his boyhood days, born April 16, 1844; died June 16, 1912. To this marriage there were no children born.

When a boy sixteen years of age William became imbued with the life of a soldier, and quietly slipped away and joined the army as a drummer boy, of our Civil War. Served under the command of Captain Lee, who formed a company of country lads in Cumberland county.

After a time he was taken sick, having not enlisted he was sent home. Upon recovery he enlisted in the 20th Cavalry, Company D, January 1, 1862. Discharged January 15, 1863; reinlisted in 209th Infantry; discharged May 25, 1865, having passed through all the principal battles encountered; was shot in the neck by a Confederate, but acted as his own doctor and continued to the end of the war.

To his first marriage the following children were born:

- 700a <sup>1</sup>Edgar Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Oct. 13, 1871, d. Oct. 16, 1871.
- 700b <sup>2</sup>Mary Francis Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Oct. 21, 1872, m. Feb. 20, 1891, at Sunbury, Pa., to Henry Barney Hopper, b. March 27, 1860; born to them are the following family:
- 713 <sup>1</sup>Francis Rebecca Hopper,<sup>5</sup> b. May 12, 1892, m. George H. Krick, July 2, 1912, b. July 1, 1889.
- 714 <sup>2</sup>William Allan Hopper,<sup>5</sup> b. Oct. 31, 1893.
- 715 <sup>3</sup>Lillian Viola Hopper,<sup>5</sup> b. April 4, 1897.
- 716 <sup>4</sup>Velma Ellen Hopper,<sup>5</sup> b. July 1, 1902.
- 700c <sup>3</sup>William Sproul Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Dec. 14, 1874, m. Laura Beatrice Wynn, b. April 11, 1872. They are the parents of four children:
- 717 <sup>1</sup>William Redifer Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. April 3, 1894. He enlisted in the U. S. Navy in 1912. Served on the battleships Nebraska, survey boat, Montana, having made two trips to South America, Cuba, Porto Rico and Bermuda. Assisted in the survey work of the Panama Canal.
- 718 <sup>2</sup>Harold Reuben Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. Oct. 23, 1896.
- 719 <sup>3</sup>Charles Spencer Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. June 10, 1899.
- 720 <sup>4</sup>Theodore Roosevelt Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. April 29, 1904.
- 700d <sup>4</sup>Stuart Wareham Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. Nov. 14, 1876, m. Lucille Jaynes.
- 700e <sup>5</sup>Edward Ross Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. April 7, 1878, m. Florence Cornelius, of Sunbury, Pa.; born to them one son.
- 721 <sup>1</sup>Donald Mahaffey.<sup>5</sup>
- 700f <sup>6</sup>Ella Virginia Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> b. March 25, 1880, m. March 10, 1897, to Charles E. Lawrence, b. March 18, 1874. They have two children:
- 722 <sup>1</sup>Ethel Virginia Lawrence,<sup>5</sup> b. May 20, 1904.
- 723 <sup>2</sup>Helen Francis Lawrence,<sup>5</sup> b. July 5, 1905.

CONCLUSION.

An apology old Cumberland
 I fear you owe the Clan,
 Since from your branch a poetess
 Inflicts her verse on man.
 Yet each has sent its talent forth,
 To fill their sphere in life;
 Professions of all sorts we find
 Beside the humble wife.
 So now we trust the Clan will bear
 With patience what you give.
 The talent of this poetess
 Though small, perhaps may live
 To speak of how old Cumberland
 Shared in this work, so dear;
 Perpetuated to the Clan,
 And filled its humble sphere.

PERRY COUNTY BRANCH

---

739 GUY MEHAFFIE, progenitor of the Perry Co. Mehaffies, and his wife, Margaret, or "Peggy" Hamilton, were natives of Ireland. The date of their emigration is not known, nor have we any history to confirm the fact that they were married previous to their coming to America. In reading the history of the early settlers of Cumberland County, we find numerous families by the name of Hamilton, who were of Scotch-Irish descent, same as the Mahaffey family, both originally coming from Scotland and settling in Ireland in the earlier centuries. Possibly, Guy Mehaffie married after his emigration to America.

They settled along the banks of Shermans Creek, Perry Co., (then a part of Cumberland County), which in those days was a dense forest. The Indians roved at will, making the days fearful and the nights hideous with their war whoops.

There were but few settlers at that time, the log cabins being several miles apart. In the year 1755 we read of the murder of the "Woolcomer" family, who were the nearest neighbor of our subject. They were eating their evening meal, consisting of mush and milk, when an Indian appeared in the doorway; being asked to partake of the meal he replied he "came for scalps" not food, a young son twelve years of age made his escape through a back window, giving the alarm to the nearest fort; when the soldiers arrived the next morning they found the entire family murdered. Thus we date the settling of Guy Mehaffie in Perry Co. from the date of this incident, he probably locating here several years previous.

Guy Mehaffie was a weaver by trade, and he and his wife were God-fearing people. Under adverse circumstances, they reared the following family of three children:

We might add to the above data concerning the last mentioned child Ruth Mehaffie, who married John Murphy, that a granddaughter is living in Carlisle, Pa., by name of Ruth Murphy Glass, and possibly many more direct descendants of this third child of our subject.

Margaret Mehaffie, daughter of Guy and Margaret Hamilton Mehaffie, was born 1755, died Oct. 15, 1830, she was married some time in the '70's of 1700, to John Smiley, who was born in 1742 and died in 1840. John Smiley was the son of Thomas Smiley, who is buried at the Meeting House Springs graveyard, near Carlisle, Pa. Thomas Smiley had five sons and one daughter. George, Samuel and John settled within one mile of each other near Shermansdale, Pa., by the Shermans Creek. Thomas settled in the western part of the State near Pittsburgh, and William settled west of the Tuscarora mountains. The daughter, Sallie, married a Mr. Sharron, and lived in the western part of the state.

John and Margaret Mehaffie Smiley reared a large family,, he dividing his farms between his two sons, William and John. The land granted to William is where Shermansdale is now located, and the farms to the north and east embrace the holdings of John, which all told, contained 250 acres.

The children born to John and Margaret Mehaffie Smiley were:

John and Margaret Mehaffie Smiley, who now lie buried in the "Old Presbyterian Graveyard," near the present Zorger farm, have the tomb stones marking their graves, which were placed there by their grandchildren about 1876.

Second Generation

741 <sup>2</sup>THOMAS MEHAFFIE,<sup>2</sup> (Guy Mehaffie.<sup>1</sup>)

Thomas Mehaffie, only son of Guy and Margaret Hamilton Mehaffie, was born June 5, 1766, died Dec. 20, 1853. He married Catherine Colvin, of Jersey Shore, Pa., who was born 1769, and died Sept. 15, 1848. They belonged to the Quaker church.

We are told that Thomas was a very large man, as was also his wife. He was a very quiet and of a kindly nature, and highly respected in the locality in which he lived.

The writer was told by a grandson that he could recall him, when a small child and taken to see his grandfather, as sitting in a large arm chair with a tall cane in his hands, when told who the child was he patted him on the head saying, "Is this one of Hamilton's boys."

Being of a very lenient disposition he would frequently remark to his boys during the mothers absence, "Laddies! Laddies! when your mother comes home she will come "doon" on you like a "flax Brake," so evidently the mother was the sterner parent.

Thomas Mehaffie lived on the old homestead of his father, which was also nearby the farm where his sister Margaret Mehaffie Smiley lived. To Thomas and "Kitty" Colvin were eight children born:

CONCLUSION.

Though fourth in line dear Clan we find,

Our number is not small,

The space required may you find—

Of interest to all;

Included in our number, too

Are two small tots who boast

The honor which preceding Clan—

Although that claim "almost"—

In fact, exceeds in mentioned names,

But then We have one more

Generation, which we boast about,

The eighth, spoken of before;

To this "honor" boldly we lay claim,

To Perry it is due—

None other can exceed I'm sure,

From One to Eight we grew. M. E. M. C.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY, No. 1

WESTMORELAND MAHAFFEY.<sup>1</sup>

1365 <sup>1</sup>—— MAHAFFEY, married —— McIntyre, came from county Donegal, Ireland, when a small boy. We find mentioned among his descendants:

1366 <sup>1</sup>Joseph Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> b. about 1775, m. Ellen Lackaye.

1367 <sup>2</sup>John Mahaffey.<sup>2</sup>

1366 <sup>1</sup>JOSEPH MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> came as a small boy with his family to Westmoreland county, Pa. He had a number of brothers, all but one or two, older than himself. They were among the first settlers of the county.

Several of the brothers were employed as government spies at the time of the French and Indian War, and some were at the battle in which Braddock was defeated.

John Harbison, in command of the company, married one of the sisters. She and her child were killed by the Indians.

Two of the brothers, John and Andy, went to Ohio in 1820.

Joseph Mahaffey married Ellen Lackaye about 1805. She came from county Derry, Ireland, when about six years of age. To them were born eight children.

1371 <sup>1</sup>STEPHEN MAHAFFEY,<sup>3</sup> born near Connellsville, Pa., 1817, was married in 1843, to Elinor Carroll, who was born August 17, 1819. They lived in Fairmont, W. Va. She died 1895, and he in 1905. To them were born eight children:

1382 <sup>4</sup>John Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> living at Fairmont, W. Va., had six children, two of whom are dead.

1383 <sup>5</sup>Stephen Mahaffey, Jr.,<sup>4</sup> of Grafton, W. Va., married three times; has one living child.

- 1384 <sup>6</sup>Gibson Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> of Grafton, W. Va., has eleven children; his wife is dead.
- 1385 <sup>7</sup>Eliza Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> married — Felty; has five children; reside at Fairmont, W. Va.
- 1386 <sup>8</sup>Maggie Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> married — Reed, have five children; reside at Davis, W. Va.
- 1372 <sup>2</sup>MOSES MAHAFFEY.<sup>3</sup> Drowned in Mississippi river before brothers went west.
- 1373 <sup>3</sup>JAMES MAHAFFEY.<sup>3</sup> Went to Illinois with Joseph A. in 1852; raised a family, who now live at Buffalo Prairie, Ill. Their names are:
- 1387 <sup>1</sup>Moses Mahaffey.<sup>4</sup>
- 1388 <sup>2</sup>Morgan Mahaffey.<sup>4</sup>
- 1389 <sup>3</sup>John Mahaffey.<sup>4</sup>
- 1390 <sup>4</sup>Isaac Mahaffey.<sup>4</sup>
(James, the father of this family, is dead.)
- 1374 <sup>4</sup>JOSEPH ALEXANDER MAHAFFEY,<sup>3</sup> b. 1820, in Fayette county, Pa., close to Uniontown, and lived in the neighborhood called "the bend of the Monongahela river." He married Nancy Davis, at New Salem, Doderidge county, W. Va., in 1851; moved to Rock Island county, Ill., in 1852. She died in 1854, and he in 1878. There is record of only one son:
- 1391 <sup>1</sup>William C. Mahaffey.<sup>4</sup> A real estate man of Bloomington, Ill.
- 1375 <sup>5</sup>JANE MAHAFFEY.<sup>3</sup> Married Jefferson Swingler; moved to Livingston county, Ill., and died there; their sons are:
- 1392 <sup>1</sup>George Swingler.<sup>4</sup> Resides at Mersales, Ill.
- 1393 <sup>2</sup>Thomas Swingler.<sup>4</sup> Resides at Toluca, Ill.
- 1394 <sup>3</sup>Samuel Swingler.<sup>4</sup> Resides in Oklahoma.
- 1376 <sup>6</sup>SARAH MAHAFFEY.<sup>3</sup> Married John Rumrer, and went to Illinois with her brother, Joseph A.
- 1377 <sup>7</sup>MARGUERITE MAHAFFEY.<sup>3</sup> Married Lanty Henderson. They first settled in Illinois, then in Nebraska.

- 1378 <sup>8</sup>MARY ELLEN MAHAFFEY.<sup>3</sup> Married William Cox, and moved to Ohio.

Note.—This record is made up from data furnished, but in some respects it lacks conformity.

It would be more reasonable to suppose that those who took part in the French and Indian Wars were of the generation of the first Mahaffey. With a few apparent discrepancies set aside, we could merge this family into the family which came from Washington county, Maryland. This family is also likely "one" with the No. 2 line.

Westmoreland County, No. 2

- 1395 <sup>1</sup>JOSEPH MEHAFFEY.<sup>1</sup>

Joseph Mehaffey, born 1782, came, with a brother, from Ireland when only ten years of age, settled in Westmoreland county, married and raised a large family, two of whom were twins:

1399 <sup>1</sup>Joseph Mehaffey,<sup>3</sup> of Barberton, Ohio (son of John,<sup>2</sup>).

- 1396 <sup>1</sup>JOSEPH MEHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> (Joseph.<sup>1</sup>)

Joseph Mehaffey, son of Joseph, No. 1, was born in 1821; died in 1862. He was the father of five children, all of whom died except one son, Joseph:

- 1398 <sup>1</sup>JOSEPH MEHAFFEY,<sup>3</sup> (Joseph,<sup>2</sup> Joseph.<sup>1</sup>)

<sup>1</sup>Joseph Mehaffey,<sup>3</sup> son of Joseph Mehaffey, No. 2, was born 1855, and died in 1896, leaving two children:

- 1401 <sup>2</sup>CLYDE EDWIN MEHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (Joseph,<sup>3</sup> Joseph,<sup>2</sup> Joseph.<sup>1</sup>)

Clyde Edwin Mehaffey, son of Joseph Mehaffey, No. 3, is married and has two children:

The Mehaffeys in this county were large land owners. Only recently a part of the old farm was sold to the P. R. R. Co. The old log house still stands.

Note.—This family spells their name "Mehaffey."

Probable Connections of Westmoreland County

This family of Mahaffeys are probable descendants of John or Andrew Mahaffey of Westmoreland county line No. 1.

- 1404 <sup>1</sup>ANDREW MAHAFFEY,<sup>1</sup> of Highland and Adams county, Ohio, married, first, — Ellison; afterwards, Maria Hughes. Moved to Mills county, Iowa, in 1856, and died at St. Joseph, Mo., about 1858. He had several brothers:

To this union born one daughter:

- 1409 <sup>5</sup>SAMUEL MAHAFFEY,<sup>2</sup> had a son who was in the Civil War.

- 1404 <sup>1</sup>ANDREW MAHAFFEY,<sup>1</sup> had at least four sons, two of whom fought in the Civil War.

1411 <sup>1</sup>Andrew Stephen Mahaffey,<sup>2</sup> son of Andrew No. 1, was born 1846, died 1910.

1412 <sup>2</sup>W. R. Mahaffey,<sup>3</sup> son of Andrew No. 1, was born 1848, is in the real estate business in Harrisonville, Ill.

CONCLUSION.

Jointly we have formed a chapter,

As for kinship, we are not sure.

This we know, our hopes are mutual—

And may the name for'er endure.

We feel proud that in Westmoreland,

This Scotch-Irish name too, was found,

Also glad we are included

In this book, and together bound. M. E. M. C.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

---

1413 <sup>1</sup>ALEXANDER MAHAFFEY,<sup>3</sup> the progenitor of the Washington county, Pa., and of one branch of the Ohio Mahaffeys, was born in Washington county, Maryland, about 1765.

Two generations preceded him in this locality. His father's and grandfather's Christian names have not been preserved. It is believed by his descendants that his Mahaffey forbears were of Scotch-Irish extraction. He was a Whig, and of Protestant faith. He prophesied that slavery would bring on one of the worst wars that the world had ever known. From his own lips the following record has been preserved:

"When the Revolutionary War was in progress the people were greatly excited over the killing of the Colonists, and destruction of property by the British. There was a call for the people to defend their country. Father took his team and wagon, and taking two of his neighbors, beside two of his sons, one old enough for service, whose name is not preserved, the other myself, to bring back the team, we started for the front. (Name of place not mentioned.)

"Before I could get away my team and myself were pressed into service to haul provisions, ammunition, etc., and it was two weeks before I reached home. I never saw my brother again, but father returned and lived the remainder of his life in Washington county, Maryland."

After the death of the father, Alexander was appointed administrator of the estate. He fell heir to some slaves, as did also his brother William.

About this time, near the close of the century, they moved to Washington county, Pa. Alexander freed his slaves, and William took his and moved to Tennessee. He is supposed to be the progenitor of those of the name in the far south, unless otherwise accounted for.

Alexander married Margaret Kirkpatrick, who was born 1775. About 1820 they moved to Richland county, Ohio, where M. D.—9 he purchased a farm and resided until the death of his wife in 1844. He then made his home with his daughter "Polly," Mrs. Rodgers, near Amity, Ohio, where he died in 1851, and is buried beside his wife in Mt. Zion cemetery, thirteen miles from Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

He spelled his name "Mahaffey," and it is believed that his forbears also spelled it the same way. He was a man of a fair education, and was supreme ruler in his household, and never allowed a child to disobey him. He whipped a son much larger than himself for an act of disobedience.

There were twelve children born to Alexander and Margaret Kirkpatrick Mahaffey. The sons were large men and gifted with considerable talent for music. Their names were:

 1440 <sup>4</sup>Shepley Kirkpatrick.<sup>5</sup>
 1441 <sup>5</sup>James Kirkpatrick.<sup>5</sup>
 1442 <sup>6</sup>Margaret Kirkpatrick.<sup>5</sup>

Joseph Mahaffey, son of Alexander and Margaret Kirkpatrick Mahaffey, was born in Washington county, Pa., 1807, and lived there until he served his time at the blacksmith trade.

He located in Harrison county, Ohio, where he married Letitia Wells, who was born 1808.

He was a pioneer of Knox county, locating there in 1831 or '32. He was a man of high morals, and always ready to defend the right under all circumstances. He died 1872 and his wife 1876.

This account of how he "licked" the Knox county bully is told in his own language: "One day as I was talking with a friend on the street a large man, unknown to me, driving a team of horses, drove his horses almost upon me, commanding me, with an oath, to get out of his way or he would drive over me.

"I replied, 'I guess not.' He replied, with an oath that he would, and that I had insulted him once before any way, and jumped out of his wagon and rushed at me. I told him he was mistaken in his man; that I had never seen him before. He told me that I was a d—n liar, and I told him if he said that again I would 'muzzle' him. He attempted to repeat it, but before he could do so I did 'muzzle' him, and he went to the grass.

"Having on my best clothes I attempted to remove my coat, when a party from behind caught me by the skirt of my new spike tail coat and tore it up the back to my neck. I grabbed the party who tore my coat and threw him to the middle of the street, took off what was left of my coat and met the first party who was up and coming at me. I reached for his throat and in so doing I got my finger in his mouth. I twisted my thumb in his mouth, outside of his teeth and held him so tight he could not bite me, and 'By Molly' I sent in a few in the short ribs, and every time I hit him I could feel him wilt.

"I let go of him and he went down in a pile, and to my surprise I learned I had 'licked' the 'Bully' of Knox county without getting a scratch, or becoming angry, because I was positive that he was mistaken.

"He became my friend and one of my best customers."

Joseph Mahaffey died at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, June, 1872, was buried in Mt. View cemetery, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and his wife was born in Harrison county, 1808, died in Mt. Vernon in 1876; is buried in same cemetery as her husband. To this union was born seven children:

CONCLUSION.

We bid you welcome, dear "Buckeye Clan,"
 For truly you have crossed a span
 Of years. Before settling in a State,
 From "our Washington" you did migrate
 To become a "Buckeye," yet we claim
 M. D.—10

Clan kinship with the Mahaffey name—
Matters not if in some distant land—
Sure you belong to this "Irish" band.
Beside you know with us you have met
In our reunions; you'll not regret
You came. Come again, 'tis glorious fun—
Good "Buckeye Clan" from county Washington.

INTRODUCTION TO PART No. 2

---

1605 Mahaffeys in Ireland, and 19th Century Emigrants to America.

The literature of Ireland is filled with great collections of genealogies, some compiled before the time of St. Patrick, and continued until seventeenth century.

These genealogies were checked every few years by the great convention Lara. After this ceased the Aenachs, or Fairs, continued, at which time the genealogies of the chiefs were rehearsed.

The Irish chieftain families meet in certain historical and semi-historical personages who lived several centuries before, or after Christ. But not content to going back to these founders the old genealogists strove to make the nobility of one family.

They went on to the legendary Miled, his sons and uncle; Miled is supposed to be the leader of the first Gaels who entered Ireland. Three of his sons were Eremon, Ir and Eber, and his Uncle Ith. From these men are derived the great groups Eremonian, Irian, Eberian and Ithian families.

The Emeronian families are the largest group and meet in the Arch King Eochaidh, who died about 379. From another son of Eochaidh, the archking Nial of the Nine Tostages, come the Northern Hy-Neils, or O'Neils, of Ulster, of whom there are three families; those of Dungannon in Tyrone, Fews of Armagh, and Clanneboy in Antrim. Another son of Nial was Eoghan, who gave the name of Tyrone, Tir Eoghan, the Land of Eoghan.

When Brian was archking he obliged the chiefs of the Clans to take the name of some ancestor as a family name. If he took his father's name he used the prefix Mac, meaning son of, if of a more remote ancestor they used O, which means grandson, or descendant of. Brian was Archking in 1002 (note this is copied from printed matter sent by Miss M. G. Mahaffey, of Baltimore, Md., who is a descendant of Susan O'Neil, of Dungannon, Ireland.)

The fact that the Mahaffey's adopted a coat of arms as early as the 11th century goes to prove that they are of ancient lineage. We, however, do not know whether this was in Scotland or Ireland.

We have from good authority that they have been buried in Clonleigh Cemetery, in Ireland, from time immemorial (a long time), which would suggest that they might have been in Ireland even earlier than the 11th century.

The strong impression is that they are of Scotch descent, although there is a legend to the effect that one "Bau Haffet" came over with William III. in 1688, making, if that were true, a strain of Dutch blood. In certain families this would be received with scorn, because all these years they have prided themselves on that Scotch-Irish blood. However drop the Bau, and substitute Mac, and we have Mac Haffet, which could easily be corrupted in McHaffet, McHaffy, or Mahaffey.

Be that as it may we will not strain our imaginations to that extent, but rest on the conviction that we are Scotch-Irish. They could have migrated from Scotland at any time, but it is likely that at the time of the Ulster Plantation, 1609-1612, they have found sufficient reason, especially among the poorer, or ambitious ones, for settling in Ireland. Those of the extreme north were doubtless among this number, and were the ancestors who are buried at Clonleigh, and took part in the defense of Londenberry when beseiged by King James in 1688, as one of them died in sight of "home ten miles from Londenberry."

We also have record of them at Lifford, in Donegal, at Strabane, just across the river, in Tyrone; in Lurgan, Cavan and Down, also Dublin and Belfast. From family traditions, inherent traits, family names, and certain striking resemblances one can almost with certainty select the place of origin. The members of the Clan are welcome to their choice, except where it is already proven, as in the case with the nineteenth century emigrants to this country and those now living in Ireland.

James Mahaffey, fourth son of James and Margaret McClure Mahaffey, was born in 1800, married Margaret Galbraith, who was born in 1799. They emigrated from Masshill, Parrish of Lifford, Donegal county, Ireland, in 1850; settled in Butler county, Pa., on a farm. He later sold the farm and moved to Allegheny, now North Side Pittsburgh. He died in 1855 and his wife in 1872. Eight children were born to these parents:

1648 <sup>1</sup>Isabella Anne Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> m. Daniel Reed, and had three children:

1663 <sup>2</sup>Mary Reed,<sup>5</sup> m. Truckton Magaw; they had two children:

1677 <sup>1</sup>Harry Denny Magaw.<sup>6</sup>

1664 <sup>3</sup>William Reed.<sup>5</sup>

1649 <sup>2</sup>Margaret McClure Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> m. James Patterson, has eight children and several grand children.

1652 <sup>5</sup>William John Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> killed in seven days' fight before Richmond; three brothers enlisted in Co. C., 9th Pa. Reserves.

1653 <sup>6</sup>Galbraith Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> served to end of war, m. Nancy Duncan. They had several children; we mention:

1674 <sup>1</sup>William Bright Mahaffey.<sup>5</sup>

1676 <sup>3</sup>George Clifford Mahaffey.<sup>5</sup>

(Galbraith Mahaffey died from diseases contracted in war.)

1654 <sup>7</sup>Mary Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> m. Samuel Duncan, d. 1862; had three children.

1655 <sup>8</sup>George Mahaffey,<sup>4</sup> enlisted in a calvary company in ninety days' service—when mustered out went to military school in Philadelphia, Pa.; passed for lieutenant of the first class; received a U. S. commission and was assigned to the 22nd Regt., U. S. Colored troops. He served until the end of the war. He was at one time Provost Marshall at Appalachicola, Fla. He went south after the war and has never been heard from since.

Fourth Generation

James Mahaffey, third child of James and Margaret Galbraith Mahaffey, was born in 1831, married Sept. 18, 1855, to Jane Patterson, who was born Oct. 4, 1835. He died in 1913. James Mahaffey was a retired banker, and much beloved by all who knew him. To him the "Mahaffey Clan" owe many interesting details as to the "Irish Mahaffeys." He took great interest in the reunions, and always regretted he was unable to attend.

He was an invalid for some time before his death. In a letter written in 1911 he positively states that he believed himself to be a relative of the Mahaffeys who settled on the Susquehanna. He had heard his father and his great Uncle "Jack" discuss this matter. Uncle "Jack" lived at Drumore Parrish of Lifford, county Donegal, Ireland, weighed about 250 pounds, was very red in the face. He had a son Minion, who was the tallest man in the parrish. In 1897 there was a grandson Minion, living on the old homestead.

He also wrote, "Tradition has it that some of our ancestors were defenders of the city of Londonderry, when besieged by King James in 1688; some were killed, some were starved to death, and one died from exhaustion in sight of home." "A sampler worked in different colored silk hung over the mantel-piece in my boyhood home. The inscription was, "Our Faith and Our Fireside;" "No Surrender, Meg 1688." The word "Meg" is an abbreviation of roaring Meg, a cannon that was mounted on the walls of the city of Londonderry, and made a terrific noise, which struck terror to the heart of King James and his followers. The early Mahaffeys were Episcopalians, with a few Presbyterians. They have been buried in the old cemetery at Clonleigh from time immemorial."

He further states that his father had the family tree neatly written out on a sheet of parchment. (This record was obtained by him in a law suit he had in regard to a piece of freehold property), and was written back to 1688, and was lost in the move to this country. James and Jane Patterson Mahaffey were the parents of nine children :

- 1665 <sup>1</sup>Eliza Emma Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> m. Dr. John Graham, in 1880. They have three children :
- 1679 <sup>1</sup>Jane Graham,<sup>6</sup> m. George B. Howell, 1906 and born to them two children :
- 1688 <sup>1</sup>Jane Howell.<sup>7</sup>
- 1689 <sup>2</sup>George Bethel Howell.<sup>7</sup>
- 1680 <sup>2</sup>Rhea Williams Graham.<sup>6</sup>
- 1681 <sup>3</sup>Ashley Chalfant Graham.<sup>6</sup>
- 1666 <sup>2</sup>Anna Margaret Mahaffey,<sup>6</sup> m. Dr. J. R. J. Milligan, in 1890. They had two children born to them :
- 1682 <sup>1</sup>Jane Anita Milligan.<sup>6</sup>
- 1683 <sup>2</sup>Margaret Elanor Milligan.<sup>6</sup>
- 1667 <sup>3</sup>Jane Adams Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> m. William Maxwell Boggs, in 1891. They are parents of two :
- 1684 <sup>1</sup>James Boggs.<sup>6</sup>
- 1685 <sup>2</sup>Maxwell Boggs.<sup>6</sup>
- 1668 <sup>4</sup>Sarah Wyle Mahaffey.<sup>5</sup>
- 1669 <sup>5</sup>James Reunick Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> m. Eugenie Thornton, in 1903. They have two children :
- 1686 <sup>1</sup>Ashley Chalfant Mahaffey.<sup>6</sup>
- 1687 <sup>2</sup>James Mahaffey.<sup>6</sup>
- 1670 <sup>6</sup>Mary McAuley Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> m. W. S. Graham, Oct. 4, 1906.
- 1671 <sup>7</sup>Ashley Chalfant Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> d. 1901.
- 1672 <sup>8</sup>Robert Henry Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> d. Oct. 7, 1911.
- 1673 <sup>9</sup>John Galbraith Mahaffey,<sup>5</sup> (died in infancy.)

CONCLUSION.

We have heard from many of our Clan ;
 Much different, too, their stories ran,
 Each in their class ; we prize them all,
 Responding to our earnest call
 For data. In which to fill our book—
 It, we secured, by hook or crook.
 Our "Pittsburgh Clan" have helped us fine,
 In running out this "Irish" line.
 I know you'll all enjoy their part,
 Displaying a true "Irish" heart.

AN "IRISH" AMERICAN CHAPTER

1690 An "Irish" American Chapter. American representatives of this family emigrated to this country about 1881.

The settlement of Mehaffey's in West Down, Ireland, was begun about the beginning of the 17th century. Possibly one of the clan came from Scotland during the Ulster Plantation, and settled here under grants, at, or about the same time as the others settled in Donegal and Antrim counties.

This wing of the Clan spelling their name "Mehaffey." There were three known grandsons, or great-grandsons of the first founder, and they all died between the years 1830 and 1880, namely:

There is also mention made of two unknown brothers of this family, there having been five brothers in all. Many daughters were among the descendants, and have intermarried so that many of the present generation can claim lineage to the first Mehaffey settler. This settlement was made at Loughbrickland, (see illustration in book) county Down, 24 miles south of the city of Belfast, and three miles from the market and banking town of Banbridge. It was at this village where King William III. encamped with his troops on the way to the Boyne, June 20th, 1690.

It was near here where the battle of "Dolly's Brae," was fought July 12th, 1849, against the rebels.

There are many of the ancient landmarks to be found in this district. There remains a monument of three large, long, almost square stones, in the town of "Greenan," supposed to be from the Danes time of conquest, and known as the three sisters of "Greenan." Between the villages of Scarva and Gilford can be found the ruins of Tally-Ho-Castle, built by the Danes in the 11th century.

The Ulster Plantation, frequently referred to in several previous chapters, consists of 511,465 acres of land in the province of Ulster. This land became vested in the crown owing to the forfeitures under James 1st, and was divided among English and Scotch Protestant subjects, as chose to settle there—dates, 1609-1612. The colony settled in the extreme north, chiefly in Antrim and Londonderry counties, but especially around the cities (now) Londonderry and Coleraine, receiving their charter in 1613.

History again tells us of the re-colonization between 1683 and 1690, during the reformation, when the last Stuart King, James II, was removed from the throne, and died an exile in France after suffering defeat at Derry, Aughrin, Oldbridge and the Boyne, under William III. in 1801, to settle the Irish rebellion, which began May 4, 1798, costing about 170,000 lives. It was more probable that during the reformation period (1688-90) our ancestors came from Scotland and made settlement in Ulster. The writer wishes the reader could have the pleasure of reading a "Retrospect" furnished by the author of the above data, pertaining to a recent journey made by himself to his "Fatherland." Owing to lack of space we are denied giving you the pleasure, it being well worth reading. We would suggest that all interested members of this clan secure same from our newly found relative and clansman, John Meahffey, No. 17 Florida St., Pittsburgh, Pa., and journey with him across the Isle of Shamrock, the land of sunshine and flowers:

"O! Land of sunset glories,
Lone island of the west;
Of all lands to thy children,
The fairest one and best.
Thy sons will cease to love thee,
And for thy sake to toil—
When clinging Shamrock ceases
To love the Irish soil.

(Unknown writer on the Emerald Isle.)

This "Retrospect" consists of 33 closely written pages of the most interesting journey, therefore we find it impossible to take you with us upon this journey through these pages, but will introduce to you his ancestry.

Joseph Mehaffey married Mary Graham, 1843, who was born in Scarva, county Down, of Scotch ancestry. She died March 18, 1886.

Joseph Mehaffey was one of the three brothers to settle in West Down. Little is known of his early life, as records are unavailable; however, he died Jan. 1, 1863, a man about 60 years of age. To this marriage there was born an only child, a son:

1692 <sup>2</sup>John Mehaffey,<sup>3</sup> second son of this branch mentioned in beginning of this chapter, was born, died and buried in this settlement in county Down. Little can be learned of his life, save that he died some time after his brother Joseph, leaving no direct descendants.

1693 <sup>3</sup>William Mehaffey,<sup>3</sup> third son, was the youngest and died about the year 1880; he married and was survived by one daughter:

Fourth Generation

1694 <sup>1</sup>JAMES MEHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (Joseph,<sup>3</sup> ———,<sup>2</sup> ———.<sup>1</sup>)

James Mehaffey, only child of Joseph and Mary Graham Mehaffey, was born Aug. 26, 1844, at Drumsallagh, near the village of Loughbrickland; was married to Jane M. McFerron, Nov. 24, 1865. A family of eight children were born to them where they resided upon the old homestead, and were:

1697 <sup>1</sup>Joseph Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. Apr., 1867, emigrated to Pittsburg, Pa., in 1881; died from scarlet fever in 1882.

1698 <sup>2</sup>Minnie Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. Jan. 15, 1869, m. Geo. A. McCalmon, June 24, 1897, and born to them are:

1718 <sup>1</sup>Albert Gaddis McCalmon,<sup>6</sup> b. Jan. 15, 1899.

- 1719 <sup>2</sup>Jane Mehaffey McCalmon,<sup>6</sup> b. July 27, 1900.
1720 <sup>3</sup>Anna May McCalmon,<sup>6</sup> b. March 9, 1906.
1721 <sup>4</sup>George Alexander McCalmon,<sup>6</sup> b. Feb. 5, 1909. (Mrs. McCalmon, emigrated to America, 1888.)
- 1699 <sup>3</sup>George Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> b. Jan. 1, 1872, m. in 1894, to Georgina Panton; four children born to them, two dying in youth:
1722 <sup>1</sup>Beulah V. H. Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. Sept. 19, 1895.
- 1700 <sup>4</sup>William Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> third son, b. in county Down, Dec. 19, 1873; emigrated to America, Jan. 30, 1890; m. Sarah Margaret Boggs, daughter of John and Mary Boggs, of Wilkinsburg, Pa., Oct. 11, 1900, the following children have been born:
1724 <sup>1</sup>Mary Annabel Mahaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. June 20, 1903.
1725 <sup>2</sup>James Boggs Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. March 23, 1905.
1726 <sup>3</sup>William Graham Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. May 21, 1908.
1728 <sup>5</sup>Robert Wilson Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. Nov. 30, 1912.
- 1701 <sup>5</sup>Samuel James Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> fourth son, was born July 5, 1876, came to Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1892, married Martha B. Johnston, of Pittsburgh, Pa., June 24, 1902. This marriage has been blessed with five children:
1729 <sup>1</sup>Mabel Park Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. July 7, 1903.
1730 <sup>2</sup>George Wesley Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. Aug. 27, 1905.
1731 <sup>3</sup>Samuel Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. Aug. 24, 1907.
1732 <sup>4</sup>Irene W. Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. March 12, 1909.
1733 <sup>5</sup>Ethel May Mehaffey,<sup>6</sup> b. Jan. 27, 1912.
- 1702 <sup>6</sup>John Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> fifth son, born in 1878 (a bachelor.) A young man of marked intelligence; at present auditor for P. R. R. at Pittsburgh, Pa. (Referred to as writer of "Retrospect.")
- 1703 <sup>7</sup>Sarah Maria Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> the youngest daughter, was born Jan. 8, 1883, and is still at the old homestead in county Down.
- 1704 <sup>8</sup>Joseph Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> the youngest child of this family, and named after the first-born, was b. June 6, 1888, came to Pittsburgh in 1905, unmarried, a local salesman in food products.

- 1695 <sup>1</sup>JANE MEHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (William Mehaffey,<sup>3</sup> ———,<sup>2</sup>
———. <sup>1</sup>)

Jane Mehaffey, only child of William and ——— Mehaffey, who at present is living in the townland of Lisnagade, Parish of Aghaderg, near the village of Scarva. Jane being the only heir to the estate of her father, settled in Warrenpoint, and engaged in the hotel business; after a lapse of about ten years, gave up the business and married John Taggart, of Loughbrickland, about the year 1900, who owns a large farm adjoining this village. She sold the old farm to another James Mehaffey, a cousin of her father, a son of either John Mehaffey, or one of the unknown brothers.

- 1696 <sup>1</sup>JAMES MEHAFFEY,<sup>4</sup> (supposed to be a son of one of the unknown brothers of Joseph, William and John Mehaffey.)

James Mehaffey, supposed to be a son of one of the two unknown brothers of the mentioned Mehaffeyes, in forepart of this sketch, married Miss Mary Risk, a local and beautiful country lass; he died Aug. —, 1913. Ten children survive:

- 1705 <sup>1</sup>George Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> of San Dimas, Calif.
1708 <sup>4</sup>William Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> served in British Army, now of Belfast.
1710 <sup>6</sup>John Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> who lives at the old homestead.
1712 <sup>8</sup>Elizabeth Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> of Iowa.
1713 <sup>9</sup>Robert Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> of Pittsburgh, Pa.
1714 <sup>10</sup>Joseph Mehaffey,<sup>5</sup> at the old home.

A family of Mehaffeyes were discovered in these environments who belong to the original settlers, and have not had mention made, a brother and sister:

- 1715 <sup>1</sup>Isaac Mehaffey.<sup>5</sup>

LOUGHBRICKLAND, IRELAND

A present view of the spot where a settlement was made by the Mahaffey clan from Scotland in the sixteenth century, and where quite a number now live. The hotel at the end of the street was run by a Mahaffey. This town is nearly where the battle of "Dolly's Blag" was fought. It was also here where King William the III, encamped the night before the battle of the Boyne Water.

CONCLUSION.

It matters not if you came last,
Some one must take this place.
Your lot among us you have cast—
We're glad to have you grace
The pages of our book, dear Clan—
Some in the "Fatherland";
We've styled you thus "Our Pittsburgh man,"
And proudly clasp your hand;
Yet we must try our best include
Those in the Emerald Isle,
Our greetings 'cross the water send—
"This," our "Irish," chapter style.

Letters of Interest to Clan with the Genealogies of the Writers

A few years ago a letter was received by the President of the Mahaffey Clan from Dr. John Pentland Mahaffey, of Dublin University.

Doctor Mahaffey is a man of much learning, an authority on Greek, and an author of no small note. He has held for years the Greek professorship at Trinity College, Dublin. Twenty years ago he was made Vice provost of the University. He has received every degree and title a man of learning deserves, and when last heard from, although past his eightieth year, was active in his duties. He made a lecture tour in this country some years ago.

He writes: "I cannot at a moment's notice go back further than my great-grandfather, who was a landed proprietor, living at Foxhall, near Killygarden, in South county Donegal. Most of a large property had been let on lease for corn, receiving a mere head rent per acre. These head rents were recently redeemed by the tenants under the present land laws.

Two or three town lands will remain Creaghdro, Broadpath, and Black Repentance. This grandfather whose Christian name I cannot at the moment recall, had at least two sons: my grandfather, a parson and squire at Killygarden, and my grand uncle, Minion, a well-known barrister in Dublin. Both brothers married sisters of the Hone family. Minion left no children who survived him.

This generation, my grandfather and granduncle, were born about 1760 or '70. My father, Nathaniel Brindley, was born in 1798, and was the oldest; he had a brother James, who went as army surgeon to India and disappeared; there was a son who became a lawyer of Billieborough, county Cavan, who is grandfather to Judge Mahaffey now in Meskaka ; also a daughter married to Frederick Moore, who left issue and has many grandchildren ; and an unmarried daughter Eliza, who spent her later years at Billieborough, and emigrated with that family to Canada, where she died.

A William Mahaffey, from the parrish Donoughmore, graduated M. D. in Glasgow about 1770.

The family "Coat of Arms" appears on various pieces of furniture and family plate in my house. It is a mailed hand and an arm brandishing a broken spear, and I know by tradition that the motto was, "Factus non Victus," "Broken but not conquered." The family never took out a regular "Coat of Arms," i. e., never had it registered.

Doctor Mahaffey states also that his line should be strict to spell the name "Mahaffy," that is the proper form.

When W. T. Mahaffey and his son Leroy, visited Ireland in 1909, they met Miss Rachel and Miss Elsie, the charming daughters of Doctor Mahaffy, and was highly elated over the cordial welcome they received.

Doctor Mahaffy has two sons also, Arthur William, who has an heir, and Robert Rutland, a barrister in London, unmarried.

"Extracts." "Early marriages and prolific families the rule." "The direct descendants of my grandfather were all born in the vicinity of Lurgan, a town of thirty miles south of Belfast."

"We have this legend as to our family dated 1690"—"A Mahaffey had a farm beside Strabane, Tyrone county. He died, leaving a wife and one son. He left his estate to his widow during her life, and after her death to his son. A second son was born after the father's death. The oldest son sent his son to Trinity College and educated him as a barrister, and later was known as "Croppy" Mahaffey, during the time of the Irish rebellion.

The second son, who took no part in his father's estate, became a farmer. He had three sons—James, William and Samuel. James and Samuel each had a son, the former being killed at the battle of Scringapatam, and the latter dying without issue.

William had a son named James, who died June 14, 1849, aged 60 years. This James left five sons—William, George, John, Robert and James.

<sup>1</sup>William Mahaffey, b. 1810, died 1894; was my grandfather and had five sons and daughters, some of whom, or their issue, are in Toronto, Colgany and Nelson, Canada."

Mr. John George Mahaffey, was born in 1861, is a prominent linen merchant of Belfast. He is our authority for the legend of the Dutch ancestor, and writes charming letters; his complimentary tone would warrant us in thinking he had "kissed, not once, but many times, the famous Blarney stone." He had one son, who was born in 1886.

1736 <sup>3</sup>William Irwin Mahaffey. Extracts from: William Irwin Mahaffey, Belfast, Ireland.

"I observe your branch of the family have an 'e' in the surname. In my childhood days I remember my father had an 'e' in his name, but it was found that for generations previously, as was evidenced by the inscriptions upon the family tombstones in Lurgan, county Armagh, that the correct form was without the 'e.' There are some families who insert the 'e.'

"My father was James B. Mahaffy, and gave me a history back into the 18th century. The family early in that century lived in Strabane, county Tyrone. One of the sons came to Armagh and he was progenitor of the Lurgan Mahaffys.

"I am the sole survivor of my father's and mother's family." William Irwin Mahaffy is a barrister in Belfast, Ireland.

Odds and Ends

1737 <sup>1</sup>Samuel Mahaffey, of No. 1429 East Montgomery St., Philadelphia, Pa., has this to say:

"My father's name was John, and his father's name was William. My father came from northern part of Ireland when a small boy, and would be about ninety-five years old (1912.)

"I have often heard him say he had many relatives in Pennsylvania, but did not know where. His mother was buried in Philadelphia, Pa."

1738 <sup>2</sup>Pearl Mahaffey, an Ohio branch:

"I am the eldest daughter of John Wesley Mahaffey, of Middletown, Ohio. I have been teaching French and German here in Bethany College, W. Va., for five years, coming here after my graduation in Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Sincerely,
"Pearl Mahaffey.

(Letters received in 1913, by W. P. Mahaffey, Clan Sec.)

1739 <sup>3</sup>J. M. Brown, Irwin, Pa. A Westmoreland descendant.

1740 <sup>4</sup>John Mahaffey, of Philadelphia, Pa. (Received in 1912.)

"My ancestors came from Scotland about two hundred years ago and settled in Ireland, county Down, near Belfast, where I was born. I came to Philadelphia when I was eighteen years of age. I am now forty. I am married and have five children.

"Yours respectfully,

"John Mahaffey, No. 79 Laycock Ave., Phila., Pa.

1741   <sup>5</sup>John Mahaffey, a relative of James of Allegheny, now deceased.

John Mahaffey, a distant relative of James Mahaffey, of Allegheny, now deceased, married ——— Macbeth, to them were born four children: (1) John, (2) Moses, (3) Samuel of Marion, Ohio, and Jane. Samuel attended one of the reunions at Mahaffey.

1742   <sup>6</sup>Clyde R. Mahaffee, Shadyside, Ohio (received May 21, 1914.)

“My great-great-grandfather, it is claimed, came from Scotland about the time Lafayette came over to this country. My great-grandfather’s name was Samuel; grandfather’s name was William Henry, born at Smithfield, Va., 1818, died at Wegee, Ohio, in 1912. Married Mary Emerson, also dead.

“My father’s name was Lawrence; died 28 years ago, when I was two years of age. Grandfather, William Henry, had an uncle, Joseph Mahaffee, living at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, just before the Civil War. I have lived in Ohio all my life.

“Yours truly,

“Clyde R. Mahaffee, Shadyside, Ohio.”

1743   <sup>7</sup>Rev. J. Clyde Mahaffey, Torrington, Wyoming:

The Rev. Clyde Mahaffey, writes: “My father was born in Brown county, Ohio. His father’s name, I believe, was Andrew; his mother’s, before marriage, Black. Both his father and mother died in ’48 or ’49, of cholera, and he was sent to Illinois, with an older sister. We would be very glad indeed to know more of our people, and if we could be traced I would like to receive information to that effect. I have five sisters and brothers. I would be glad to hear from you more fully. Cordially, “Rev. J. Clyde Mahaffey, Torrington, Wyoming.

CONCLUSION

'Tis a long lane indeed that hath no end,
And with much patience this race was run;
Though weary at times my Clansmen, and friends,
With endless labor the prize is won.
This prize may not mean a great deal to all,
Yet to some we know it will seem "dear"—
'Twill prove a memorial each can recall
A letter, or some face with a tear
Of regret; wherein they failed to respond,
And of these will we surely not find
One word. And some, too, of whom we were fond,
This indifference is truly unkind.
E'en though you have failed to help us complete,
We have tried to o'ercome this neglect
By including your name, perhaps, 'twill meet
Your approval, and win our respect.
Look over the list that concludes our work,
Read its pages from beginning to end—
May yours not be found 'mongst those who did shirk,
May Clan kinship and Clan friendship blend.
Think you we've not labored? nay you are wrong—
And possibly could we have foreseen,
You would not have found our faces, nor song,
Who descend from the Island of "Green."
In conclusion we trust that each one will find,
Our history of interest, and we pray—
The links in the chain of clanship may bind
Many hearts. And form friendships for aye.
Perhaps this work may awaken some thought—
Perhaps some dormant talent be stirred—
Be that as it may—your kinship is sought,
'Waken, mem'ry not causing eyes to be blurred.
If some are o'erlooked, resent not the slight,
For the task was stupendous, indeed,
We aimed to do justice, give each one their right—
And conclude by wishing you all "God-speed."
